「A-ah.....I died huh」

My life has always been on hard mode simply because I have a communication disorder. The reason why I died already.

For instance, I can't give good impressions to other people, or like how I can't tell others what is on my mind, or like how I can't look eye to eye with people. On those reasons, I didn't get to have such an easy life.

Well, since I'm just thinking around before I die then I'll just leave it at that.

Right now I have something more important to think about and that is, what happens to people after dying.

I don't think I would be called back to heaven though

Even though this life of mine that I got from my parents was important, I have easily threw it out like garbage. Just for the reason of saving a crying childhood friend from danger.

「But.....I still have my consciousness, what's happening?」

Even though I have communication disorder, I can still talk to myself. Talking to other people would be a sudden hurdle rise for me though.

First of all, I can't look eye to eye with people. On my childhood days, my teacher arbitrarily decided that I was deaf on a class discussion. Even at that time of Parent-Student-Teacher meeting, I couldn't speak straight.

I've been told, "Look at my eyes and speak to me" for 10,000 times throughout my whole life. Even my parents would apologize to the teachers for having a hard time with me.

「.....it seems that all I'm recalling is the past huh.」

When I confirmed the place I'm now in, First of all its pitch black. Also, even though my consciousness is here, my body isn't.

This feeling of being thrown out here and this weightlessness, I don't really understand. It's like in a game's 「Thinking mode」, it's that sort of feeling.

(TL note: 「Gamer's mind」 Han Jee-Han.)

There is a sense of sight but the body is nonexistent, It's possible to think but is impossible to move.

「So this is what happens after one dies.....dammit, I really did die.」

.....it seems that all I'm recalling is the past huh.

If this was going to happen then I shouldn't have went outside. I should have just stayed inside and continue playing my game even though my account was hacked along with my belongings that were all lost.

【Eternal Magia】The game where I spent 1/3rd of my short life on.

On my elementary days, I couldn't have friends in real life. However, inside the world of Net Games, miraculously I could talk with other people there. Considering the quarter view MMORPGs, one didn't have to match eyes with other people just so that they could talk with each other.

Also with a keyboard, those things that I want to say but couldn't express for the reason that what I say and what I want to say always becomes different in real life. In spite of the fact that inside net games, I had high sociability.

「Ah, that was dangerous.....I became depressed again.」

There's no point in being sociable inside a game if you can't speak properly in real life. I suddenly remembered another childhood friend of mine telling me that. This boy has been with me up until I died as a first year high school student. In other words, we have been together for 10 years.

That guy and this other childhood friend which I sacrificed my life in order to save with an "I made it in time!" were both the reason why I became a shut-in. Despite that, I didn't think of hating them. "Please become happy for me", is at least what I thought.

「Well, I did gave up my life to save her didn't I.....」

Yup, because I am a guy whose true feelings turn out to be different when articulated. That is why for the friend who tried to take me to the outside world when I was a shut-in, I'm truly thankful but.....As always, the words I say were different from what I truly feel.

To make a good report, shouldn't you make a deal with a teacher? or something like that. (ED: It's very likely that this is a reference.)

I'm the most joyful in this place. To the people on the outside world, I wish you all a miserable life. Reality is Shit.....

「.....Nevertheless, you really understand don't you? The existence of you who has been thrown out and alienated by the society, 【Pitiful】 is the right title for you.」

「Uwah!?!Wh-what is that so suddenly, where did that come from!?!」

There was a voice who suddenly have been heard, that's why I became very suspicious of my surroundings. This is what I hate the most, like the moment I've been talked to, or calming myself while dealing with people. Oh please don't talk to me.

「Why are you so afraid of talking to people? Inside your heart, I can't even see a trauma that stands out though.」

「A-As I said, where the hell are you talking from!」

In this pitch black spacious place, nobody is there but a voice can be heard. I do play horror games but I lower the volumes like those coward characters in a Moe anime. If there was a monster who came out of the screen, I would panic and hide while telling myself that I'm not alone. Who the hell am I talking to?

「If you'll be relieved by seeing my appearance then.....Here! So how's it?」

What's this 「so how's it?」, but before that, my field of vision suddenly became bright.

Where is this.....Are those clouds I see outside? This place looks like a 【Sky Temple】from the games I've played.

Anyway, I'm in a place like a temple in those fantasy games. Nevertheless I still have no body.

Also, in my presence is a woman standing before I was even aware. She looked younger than the me from when I was alive, she have beautiful silver hair also, her ears seems long.

In the game I played 【Eternal Magia】, There were also Elves who live in the forest parts and were great at using magic. She looked like those elves in my game.

「Good, it seems that you remember properly. Even though you're in 【Spirit】 state, you still have your memories so this talk will be faster. Normally in that state, no one would even remember themselves.」

「S-Spirit What the hell....don't joke around, I don't understand this.....」

Though, to the me whose words are contrasting from what I want to say which was really 「I understand」. I have different categories and kinds of communication disorder, like my 「Anyway, I'm not skilled in speaking, expressing my will doesn't go well」 who is a leading factor of my communication disorder.

Even though what I think about is this, the things that go out of my mouth is different from what I wanted to say. It is as if even though I'm in a spirit state, I still can't change myself.

「Spirit」.....is it. The manga I liked is what comes out of my mind so maybe it's that.

「I understand....despite being really cautious, you panic and speak in a hurry when being talked to, in addition to that, you say aggressive words which are different from what you really think. In other words 【You're having a hard time being true to yourself】.」

「Wh-what the hell....Evaluating a person like that. Since you are in a temple like this, Are you playing god or something? Haha, don't make me laugh」

[However, she might be a god. But what does she want from someone like me? It's been so long since I've spoken to other people and it makes me glad. Be that as it may, I'm a very annoying guy.....she's beautiful, so I don't want her to hate me]

——Wh-what the hell is this. Even though I'm only speaking in my mind, audible words are coming out from nowhere.

「Hehe.....'I'm glad', 'she's beautiful'. If you can think about that then you should clearly say it to the other party. You, it's always like that right? You can't say what you really intend to say, have you not been misunderstood by other people?」

「N-No.....」

[Perhaps Hina had also misunderstood.. because that girl uses the same barrette the whole time. She wears it often, the present that I gave on a whim. Isn't it childish? Like..... She isn't wearing others anymore after that. If that would be lost, perhaps, she would also go to Kyouusuke's place. Ahh~. I'm the worst. What a bitter end]

I-I'm thinking all about this again...this is bad, all the things I've been thinking is being sent to her. And this time, it's about the useless me who has communication disorder.

「Hmmm.....You like that Hina-chan don't you? That girl who got NTR'd by the other childhood friend named Kyouusuke. Furthermore, there's another unfortunate thing that happened right?」

「You can see all of it huh....haa, so doesn't this mean that I don't need to say anything right?」

[When I became a shut-in, I thought of ways so that I won't be a burden to my parents. I thought of using the RMT method inside the game. I know that it's a bad thing but I didn't have any choice. I made a deal on 10,000,000 yen but I was fooled by the same guild mate. My password was stolen coupled with my account being hacked.]

At that moment when I logged in, My level and skills were still the same but all my items and money were gone.

From the first time I logged in up till now, my total logged in time was 20,000 hours of play time, and all the fortunes I summed up were gone in a blink of an eye.

Several days passed. At that time I didn't think that I would die.

On a certain rainy day of a shut-in who hasn't gone out of his house for several days. There was a figure outside my house which belonged to Kyousuke and Hina who were having a fight.

That Hina who ran away from Kyousuke after having a fight, I wondered why he didn't run after her. For someone like me who couldn't do anything, I went out of my house and ran after her.

「...Wait, I have something to say. The players of the game 「Eternal Magia」 will be sent from their present world to the Eternal Magia world I'm handling.」

「Eh.....?」

[W-wait a minute, I don't understand anything right now. That wasn't just a game? Why the hell is there a Real and Fake of that world?]

「I don't need to give an explanation concerning that. You dying was outside of my expectations and that's why we're having this interview now.」

「O-outside your expectation....」

[The me on that day, where I went out of the house and saved Hina by dying.....to a god like her, it was outside of her expectation]

(TL note: As expected of my master)

What I'm saying in my heart and mind is transmitted to the other party means that this talk should be easier. Although it's really embarrassing when you're heartfelt words are being transmitted, and it might become a 100% misunderstanding to the other party.

If it was like this when I was alive...nope, That would also be a hard life in it's own way. There's no other method in thinking about that.

「First of all, The person who played 【20,000 hours】 of 【Eternal Magia】 out of all the other people who only played 【15,000 hours】. Only a single person has accomplished 【20,000 hours】 and that is you, 【Morioka Hiroto-kun】. You who was the 【TOP PLAYER of JAPAN】. Your account was targeted to be hacked. Your play time was useless so they just took your money and items.」

「Dammit.....I was using level capped equipment, so how did they find out that I was saving all my items in a bank.」

「That's simple, it's because of the abundant envy you collected from the surroundings. In Eternal Magia, there was a powerful guild and the leader of that guild was you right?」

My communication power in net games is Ultimately High. Not only to other characters but even those NPCs were kind to me. For the reason of being liked by many, I poured 100 bonus points on the skill 【Negotiation skill】, level cap is 75 and 1 level costs 3 bonus points.

Nobody other than me would level up their 【Negotiation skill】 to level 10. Bargain skill will be unlocked on level 10 【Negotiation skill】 which is a useful active skill. There's also a skill unlocked after hitting level 30 【Negotiation skill】 and that is the skill with a small chance of success rate called 【Persuasion】. That is why no one would use their points on 【Negotiation skill】.

Leveling it up would take a dreadful amount of time and you can't delete characters in Eternal Magia【】. 【Eternal Magia】 has several hundred variety of skills.

There's been rumors that there was someone who had all those skill and became peerless with power according to what was being heard in the net game. Eternal Magia's status has a very hard protection that no one could tamper with the game. Even a popular hacker tried to analyze it's game client, he couldn't even open the black box

Well aside from that, only I who have 100 points for the 「Negotiation skill」 knows of the other world.

At that time when my 「Negotiation skill」 still isn't level 100,

I had a talk with the king and bowed down his head to me. He begged me to defeat the demon lord.

I proceeded to negotiate with him and got to employ some mercenaries as soldiers.

I used those soldiers to sneak my way past the eyes of people and conquered a super hard Dungeon that no one has yet to conquer. I then offered information bit by bit to build up a number of friends.

My companions increased by a great number and as a result, I was asked to establish a guild.

I became a guild Master!

Prologue 2

A set of people in Eternal Magia called 「Capture group」 immediately took the information that I used as bait and defeated the Boss who re spawned from the dungeon I captured.

Because I couldn't reveal my secret skills and build, I couldn't live up to the title of 「Guild Master」.

2 years passed by and the fortune my guild had collected since then became 2 Trillion Etana (TL note: Etana is the currency in game i think?).

I also earned some by Solo Playing.

“I became the figure of a guild master.....but I pushed off the management of the guild to another person.”

[Mikoto-san and Maromayu-san who became my assistants. No matter how much I wish to express my gratitude towards them, it's still not enough.

Despite the fact that until now I'm still confused of Maromayu-san's name]

“You even neatly applied honorifics on their names on your mind. Don't you just have to speak in real life similar to how you type using keyboard?”

“D-Don't say something so stupid.....Saying something like that when it's already over for me.”

In case of the world of anime and games, even if you speak through the means of writing, it's likely that a character like that would be permitted to do it.

In the game world, I who was known as 「Amazing Solo player who gave information to all」 「Most Respected Guild Master」, I was permitted to become a character like that.

Even though I became a burden to my parents and i died, I never once thought of regretting the fact that I became a net game player.

Although I want to apologize to my parents for being a burden, I can't do it after all since I'm dead already.

“S-so.....Why me.....”

[Of all the people in this world, Why did a god like you call someone like me?]

Although I haven't seen her face straight yet, this god, she's truly beautiful.

She is more cuter than Hina is what I thought, oops, my heart wavered there for a second.

P-perhaps she is interested in me.....is what I thought.

Because I've been talking about games for a while now, maybe this goddess likes games too is what my mind have been conceiving according to what I've analyzed from our conversation.

“Umm, That's right. As I thought so, your head is really cut open. All the things you've thought are exactly true.”

“Wha-what.....Y-You can even read what I'm thinking.....and what the hell is a god who likes games, That's impossible”

[S-seriously.....Does she really like games? Is there a god who picks up abandoned people?

But if the Goddess is a beauty like this, damn, I want to be picked up please.

Wait, why am I thinking about this.]

As I thought so, even useless mind monologues like these are transmitted to her.

Supposing that the other party is a goddess, a beautiful goddess or something like that, it's amazing to just think about it.....there's no helping it if I can't hide what I'm saying in my mind.

"I'll omit some detailed circumstances in my explanation since it will be unfair to other people who will be transported later.

However, I'm really having fun having this 「Interview」 with a person I'm interested in"

"A-A person like me, why me....."

The goddess smiled to me like a Western girl I saw in the internet who has long hair and is combing it so gracefully and majestically.

"It's because you were in despair. For someone like you who gave your all in playing 「Eternal Magia」 and lost it all in a blink of an eye"

"...Ah.....I see.....the pitiful me. I was so pitiful that you got interested in me. That's some good taste you got there."

[So I'm being sympathized here huh....Well certainly, in an objective view, I am really unfortunate, since I focused on Net Games and threw away reality. To a guy like that.....]

"I made a different world which is a replica of the game you enjoyed called 「Eternal Magia」 of which I am ruling right now.

At least to you, who enjoyed the game candidly.

I thought that you would like to go to the world I made which is the same as the world you enjoyed.

Don't you think that the true meaning of your death is so that you will be reincarnated in that world?"

".....Seriously? I who died will be able to reincarnate in that world....?"

The fascinated me didn't stop, there was a possibility that I'll be able to go to the world of 「Eternal Magia」.

...However, if it's up to me, being reincarnated is much better than being transported there

"Yes, you will now be able to start over again. About Hina, it's sad that you couldn't get her back again."

"For someone like me, Kyouzuke suits her better than me.

Wait, she didn't got taken away from me.

We weren't even going out with each other, so why are you talking like that? Are you stupid?"

[Besides, I'm just stupid for even thinking about it.

At the time when I heard from my little brother that Hina and Kyouzuke were going out, that news inspired me to become a shut-in.

I couldn't face them.

Even up to when I died, I had no idea what Hina and Kyouzuke were fighting over outside my house.

That doesn't matter now anymore to me though.

"Yes....That 「Feeling of being deprived」 is another point about you that made me get interested.

Those 2 unfortunate feelings that you possess and the last one, to repay the other party of your unrequitted love by protecting her with your only life.

This will be the reason why I will give you some bonus points when you reincarnate to the other world.”

“Wh-what.....B-bonus points? Leaving aside Hina, I was just unfortunate and sad”

[The conclusion of my atonement huh.

Protecting someone on my own accord and dying for her on my own volition. I’m getting bonus points just because of that? Isn’t this a bit too convenient?]

“You’re so serious after all.....though that part of you is also a reason why I got interested on you.

Putting aside protecting someone on your own accord and dying for her on your own volition, what do you think about how the side who’s being protected feels right now?”

[According to what I know, Hina is a gentle girl. Though it would be good if she wouldn’t blame herself]

I should quickly forget the things about me.

But....did I really save Hina? On that rainy day, she was about to be run over by the truck. I pushed her away.....and my consciousness stopped there.

“About the answer to that, I will not tell you right now”

“Wh-why.....?”

[Why aren’t you saying the answer? I, did I just died for naught?]

“Even if you say I’m a goddess, I’m not here to teach you anything. I only came here to assess you. Though self introductions time went longer, I’ll be starting now.”

“I-I don’t understand.....What do you mean by saying ‘to assess’ me.”

[Is she talking about the Bonus points when I’m going to be reincarnated?]

The goddess laughed happily and raised her hand in my presence.

“First of all, after you get reincarnated, you can call your 「Window menu」 like this. You can do all the things you’ve been doing in 「Eternal Magia」 in that world like what you’re thinking right now”

“...E-even if you say that.”

[W-won’t I become a cheat like existence for being the only one that can use 「Window menu」. What should I do if the NPCs and other people who will be transported there get suspicious of me.....]

“You just have to see and test it yourself.

If it’s you then you can understand your surroundings at once.

Since the Reality that you know, which is 「Eternal Magia」, is absolutely same with it.”

She’s not fooling around, this goddess is only saying the truth.

Aside from myself in real life, I am just a gamer. I’m much more skillful when it comes to games.

However, 「Eternal Magia」 is the kind of RPG game to unite 2D and 3D, though the graphics didn't look that realistic.....

“Just enjoy those after you've seen it yourself. The simplified graphics shown in that game, just think that I made it all realistic.”

Map and character, the system is the same.....that's what she said.

At first, I thought of an 「Eternal Magia」world with ultra high graphics.

“Yes, it's just like what you imagined. Compared to the world you once lived in, you'd have an easier life there.”

“.....Hmm”

[Well, that might be true.....but, without the 「Negotiation Skill」, I would.....]

“After this, I will be giving you your bonus points. For the reason of being the top player of 「Eternal Magia」 and lastly, to you who have experienced misfortune in your past life.”

“Wh-why is that even a bonus.....”

Usually, Bonus points are given when one does great deeds in his past life.....is what i thought.

I looked over the words that had come out in the window and was being displayed before my eyes by the goddess.

■—Morioka Hiroto's bonus points assessment entry—■

1. The person whose one sided love(Childhood friend) got taken 96 points

2. Account hacked as well as his entire fortune gone in a blink of an eye 150 points

3. Got ran over by a truck 10 bonus points

Total points: 255

“Wh.....what is it so many.....and isn’t the total wrong?”

[Also, why is being ran over by a truck treated like a freebie....Isn’t that the most unfortunate thing in the list? If considered rationally.]

“Your bonus is capped to 255. Isn’t it also like that in 「Eternal Magia」? Although I could give more points. In the early part of the game, players get only 10 points so isn’t 255 points already extraordinary. The points you’ve acquired in you’re whole game play was 230 points....if that is still insufficient then you should just burgeon in my world.”

Am I unfortunate because my bonus points got capped in my new life.....aside from the misfortune, isn’t there a lot of people who is working hard to live?....

Anyways, even with a bonus points of 100, a person can already be considered as someone over powered if applied well.

However, with 255 points, a person can be more over powered if used wisely.

“Only players of 「Eternal Magia」 will be transported to the other world. Of all of those people, only you who had experienced misfortune pleased me.....just thinking about it sends shivers to my whole body”

“Wh-what the-!?”

[Now that's a strange hobby you have there....so that's what you mean by being ran over by a truck's assessment to be low. Is that fine Goddess-sama? Though I'm glad for the given bonus points to me....]

“Yes, take it all. I'll be living a life of a shut in and observe the 「Morioka Hiroto」 that I've given a new life to. From now on your character name will be 「Hiroto Sigrid」.”

Sigrid. The 3rd character I made in 「Eternal Magia」 who is also my favorite among all those characters.

My guild which was called 「Starry Heaven」 had 1000 guild mates since 1000 was the limit of guild members.

Prologue 3

“...Wait, is this a dream? The development of this happening is too convenient for me.

It's like slowly opening my eyes then I'll find myself looking up at the ceiling of the hospital, or something like that.”

Only my real intention is steady. While my tension was going up from being able to go to another world, I ponder about the bonus points were too convenient.

“Whether this is a dream or not, think about the way you assign your bonus points.

You still remember your skill build right?”

“Hmm.....well, yeah.”

[Certainly....I still remember what skills I had assigned my points to.

If I was really going to revive in another world then I really have to brood this over.]

Even if what I'm thinking is being transmitted to her, this goddess seemed to be in a good mood.....You're even interested on what I would do, huh.

However, even if she said I could freely spend my bonus points on anything I want.....I'll just get even more points once I leveled up.

To myself who has a substantial knowledge of 「Eternal Magia」, using those bonus points on trivial things isn't a possibility on the plans I have.

To myself who needs this in order to live....to Sigrid who needs this in order to survive

There's no need to think, I only needed one thing to survive

"co.....com.....COM!"

[COMMUNICATION SKILL!! First of all, I need to make this LEVEL 100]

Albeit being unable to say it from my mouth, the voice of my mind shouts 「Mash on that Button」.

A reckless confidence could be felt drifting out of my mind.

"As I expected.....I wonder what to do about the remaining 155 points?"

"...this is ok for now"

I said shortly and afterwards I proceed to think again in my mind. Doing this would make the voice of my mind explain what I want to say...though it's still embarrassing even if it's convenient.

[Though there is a mountain lot of strong skills, there are a lot of skills that are obtainable even if you don't spend any bonus points.

If that's the case, I'll leave these bonus points for times when I need it.....I seem to be an unlucky kind of guy so I'll put some points in luck. 30 seems fine as of now.]

Because bonus points can be allotted to any acquired skills later, I'll just save these 125 points for future use.

Since I'm someone fond of saving, I might not be able to use it later too.

"If you use 30 points for the luck skill, 「Good luck」 would be unlocked.....is that right?"

"Yes, as the first stage of 「Luck skill」 is released, 「Good luck」 will be unlocked which is good when used at the capital while gambling. Good luck also has other good effects so it's a good passive skill."

In 「Eternal Magic」 if you level up an acquired skill, you could get special attacks, magic, and other action skills like 「Steal」 and such.

Just like 「Good luck」 which is always on effect, you only need to set the passive skill on for it to take effect.

Even though I had some skills that weren't good in my game play, 「Negotiation skill」 and 「Luck skill」 were perfectly useful.

Those 2 skills were pretty useful when I was still low leveled.

After that is what job I should take. it's necessary to change the utilized skills.....eh?.

I have to choose a job right?

"About jobs, when you get reincarnated in the other world, your job will be randomly chosen.

Though there's a 90% chance of it being a 「Villager」."

"The hell....you should have let me choose my job."

[「Villager」 huh.....when i was just a beginner, it was very hard to do a job change. I turned into a 「Super Villager」 in the end though.

Well, there's no problem with that though.

Aristocrat play is also good but there are many bindings if you become an aristocrat.]

A 「Villager」 can get all kinds of skills in 「Eternal Magia」 though a certain skill will be more effective if the job suits the skill.

A 「Villager」 can neither be a 「Swordsman」 nor a 「Musician」 because the status also increases when getting a new skill.

When leveling up, you also get 3 skill points. In which to be used for skills.

There are all kinds of Character builds that have been done in this game.

There are more than 300 kinds of skills and frighteningly, it's been 6 years already since 「Eternal Magia」's release but the skills list hasn't been completed yet.

The world of 「Eternal Magia」 is too wide and the assumed scenario was ten in all but the only scenarios that got published was 3.

“....I myself don't even know why it's become like that.”

[Although I do think that the scale of 「Eternal Magia」 is too uncommon, I agree with how she chose the people who will be taken to the other world.....nah, there's still no sense of reality in this world transfer talk.]

“To this world and my world, there's a small connection between them.

Think of that as one of the main quests of yours.

Reincarnate into that world and show me how you solve all the mysteries in there.

After that, find a way to go back to me again.

Now! Give me an ANSWER!”

To reincarnate to a different world which was the stage of the game which has become reality and take on the quest of meeting the goddess again.

Though it doesn't sound bad.....Well, for the time being, I'll live desperately.

As a resident of a different world.

I have for so long wanted to say that. therefore, To my death, I have no feelings or regret any longer.

“...Oh well”

[I'm not thinking that 'I didn't die' anymore.

It's not like I regret offering my life to save Hina or anything. Just that, it's not like I gave my life for you or anything, I just voluntarily died, is what i wanted to say to her.]

Even though I made a joke like that, I didn't think that the goddess would laugh at that.

Nevertheless, it's too late, she's looking at me intensely while I burn in chagrin.

“Yes, It's not how you were unfortunate in your past life or how pitiful you were, I didn't get interested on you just for those things.

It's because your smile shows how you are a kind person. That is the best reason why I like you”

“...the heck”

[I want to correct you on that part. I'm just a good for nothing guy.]

With that answer I gave, I slightly looked at the goddess.

Of course, Even if I didn't have a communication disorder, I still wouldn't have the guts to look straight at a beautiful girl like her.

It's in the level of all beautiful moe girls in my games to be lessened to sub-heroines because her beauty outshines all others.

"To you who had hated real life, will now become Sigrid.

I wonder how you will change.....please enjoy yourself then."

When the goddess held her hand up high in front of me, the display of the window changed

[Do you want to reincarnate to a different world? Yes/No]

A little, I hesitated only a little right now.

After this I will be living in a world like 「Eternal Magia」

If Morioka Hiroto disappears then that means I'm throwing away the parents who raised me up is what i thought about.

——ahh, I did make some money before my account was hacked, even though how I got that money was bad, I wanted to repay my parent's kindness even a little.

However, the truth was.

I didn't want to regret that I played my games with my whole life.

Anyways, after finishing the very long conversation I had with the goddess.

My consciousness became distant from the temple of the goddess.....next moment when I awakened.

“Congratulations! It’s a boy.”

“Uwuh....It’s born! Thank you for your hard work, Remilia”

“ha....ha....Honey....please show me the baby’s face.”

After the baby’s body was soaked in water, it’s body was wiped

The baby who was being held by his father while his face was being shown to his mother. It seems that’s me .

For the time being, I cried terribly because I haven’t cried for almost a year now.

A baby cries because it’s cursing it’s birth, is a story that I’ve heard a long time ago.

Seems like I really have been reincarnated to a different world, leaving the memories of my hateful past behind me, which now pleases me

Now is the start of world conquering. Even though I only know the three scenarios from the game.....regarding those other seven, I don’t have any idea.

There won’t be a problem in proceeding with the 3 scenarios I know of. Those another untouched seven scenarios remaining as it is will likely pose as a problem.

A chance to conquer 「Eternal Magia」, such a happy thing like this truly exists huh?

“Honey.....what will you name this child with?”

“Yeah, this child to which we prayed and asked to the priests have finally been given to us by god. This child’s name will be.....”

My father who has chestnut color hair and face who looks like a good looking man from an anime, he proudly spoke of the name of the child who god gave them.

Hiroto Sigrid

Wait a minute! The family name was Sigrid!

Well even if I stare at this world and to my father with this sightless eyes, it won’t work well.

I could only shout on my mind too.

By the way, the official language of 「Eternal Magia」 is called 「Elgear」 language.

Basically it’s written in alphabet and if you know English then you can read it without trouble.

When I saw my name written in cursive style, it reminded me of the time when I was going to school especially English class, and it made me feel something I can’t portray.

At any rate, my reincarnation is complete.

I’m finally alone after 3 days since my birth then I summoned the window in the space between my mother and the helper of my mother to check my status.

Chapter 1: Parents and the [Maternity Skill]

[Misere], a town in the foot of a mountain which belonged to the [Junegan] kingdom.

That place is where I was born.

In the game version of [Eternal Magia], though a Marriage system exists, a way of producing an offspring wasn't implemented on the system. Also the flow of time in the game is the same in reality which means that the characters made grow older too.

Though ages differ depending on the race of you character, when you pick a human character which starts on 15 years old, it's possible to use bonus points to become older or younger depending on what the player wants.

However, when I came to this world of [Eternal Magia]... To this world which is called [Magiaheim].

A 0 year old character was here, in other words, a baby like me exists in this world.

It seems like married characters here can.....no, I can't call them characters anymore.

Married couples can produce offspring and they will spend years of time in raising them up.

One year is composed of 360 days and one month is composed of 30 days.

It would take at least 1 year before a baby like I would be able to have the ability to walk.

Though I have many things I want to try, there's one thing that I have understood.

The passive skills that I've acquire from the [Negotiation] skill doesn't work on my parents.

Though there's no problem if it doesn't work on my parents but it seems that there is a limitation in the system of [Magiaheim].

"Ugyaa, Ugyaa!" Crying baby noise

"Ara ara this is bad, It's already time huh. Please wait for a moment Hiroto."

I cried loudly in my cradle. However, when the mother I have in this different world——Remillia-san gets closer to me, I inadvertently avoid eye contact.

In my memories, the mother I had when I was still a Japanese was on her 40s by now according to what I know.

So suddenly having an 18 year old woman as my mother, in the standpoint of my past age, I can't really see this woman as my mother.

Another bad thing about this is, well, I can't really call this a bad thing but Remillia-san is BEAUTIFUL.

My father from my previous life once told me "When I was still a young boy, your mother was the Madonna of our high school you know".

However having a Beautiful woman as your mother is really unpleasant in my part. Though I'm not really comparing them but.

“...Ah.....uh....”

“Oh you cute thing, you always turn away your face away whenever I come near you. I’m your mother you know so you should properly look here.”

Yeah, I got it.

[Properly look at the other person’s eyes and talk].

When I heard of this phrase, it reminded me of my past life where I am told of this phrase with a frequency of 1 to 2 times a day.

It looks like I’m going trouble my parents in this new life huh....No, Who the hell would do that all over again.

It can’t be helped that my passive skills don’t work on my parents.

When the [Negotiation] skill level is high then it would unlock the skill [Charisma] [{Opposite Sex} Charm].

However, it could become a problem for a moment if it could be used on my parents.

Even if I ask for anything, they would surely listen to me if they are in the state of [Charm].

Though since my current state is like this, I wouldn’t need to negotiate for things like [My Diaper is seriously itchy so please change it] or [Uwahhh, I was bitten by an insect so comfort me] or [I’m hungry so please breast feed me] since they would gladly do it for me.

There was still no necessity for me to rely on my skills yet.

“Hora Hora, move your face towards here.....yoshi yoshi, good boy”

[...ugh...I-Is this...r-really ok?...]

I’m the baby and Remillia-san is the mother.

However, at the age of 18, this beautiful girl who has her hair in a ponytail is taking out her breasts with a poron while letting the baby suck her nipples. [1]

To the me who is a virgin in real life, this feeling of a woman who was only 1 year older than the me in real life is defenselessly showing me her breasts, can you understand it?

This feeling that cannot be forgiven, this pleasant yet embarrassing feeling.

Remillia-san wasn’t aware of the fact that the baby in her presence was battling against a fierce conflict in his heart.

Which it also fuels his guilty feelings.

“Since mother’s breast milk doesn’t come out much, please wait for a little when it’s insufficient”

Breast milk recovers by the passage of time.

In other words, in this world, the act of giving breast milk is when the Active skill [Breast feed] is used.

Though mana is consumed when breastfeeding. Apparently the reason for the consumption is that it depends on the skill [Maternity].

I surmised that by taking a look at Remillia-san’s status.

To see another person’s status, one needs to put 10 points on the [Judge] skill for the [{Personal} Judge] action skill to be unlocked.

However, the system is treating parent and children to be united in a party and it is possible to see another person’s status if they are in the same party as you.

Remaining skill point: 5

Even with only her status, I was able to obtain a lot of information.

First of all, although she is now living in a village from a remote countryside, she still lived in a splendid house.

Her job is [Noble woman]..... This means that she was born as an aristocrat.

Apparently, my parents are aristocrats and their parents transferred to them a detached residence where we are living now.

Although the [Elegance] skill rises just by being a [Noble woman], because the pace of it leveling up is 1 point a year, her [Elegance] skill was just level 18 without using any points.

Though I have no clue on how to level up the [Maternity] skill, it seems that the active skill [Breast feed] is acquired when [Maternity] skill is level 20 and it looks like [Maternity] skill can be leveled up if one can have a baby.

The [Physique] skill raises HP by 12 points for each level up, physical attack power rises by x3 for each level up and defense power rises by x2 for each level up.

When the [Physique] skill is leveled up, 12 points is added to one's HP, x3 points for Physical attack power and x2 for Defense power. Though this skill levels up on its own even if you don't spend bonus points on it but this skill is frighteningly slow in leveling up on its own.

To this 18 year old girl with a [Physique] level 3 means that though she is fond on exercising a little, she doesn't have any experience in life threatening combat.

Though when I was in the game, I didn't much spend even 1 point on the [Physique] skill because I found an efficient way to raise its level and leveled it up to [Physique] level 100 by myself.

Though I can't do that right now since I'm a baby and it would likely become a considerably laborious work if I actually did it.

Since, this isn't a game where in I just have to click the mouse in order to move. Well, I'll just accept that hard and laborious work.

In order to conquer this world, leveling up the [Physique] skill is an indispensable mission.

Though Remillia-san has 5 points remaining, doesn't she know how to apply the points? I'm unsure if she just doesn't dare to use those points.

It's been just 2 weeks since I was give birth to so there's a limit in the information that I have obtained.

"It's alright if you hungry again. Okay Hiroto, Here comes you favorite oppai

[Sh-shit.....my mother brought out her breast suddenly while I was in Sage mode.....Hmm, the taste of breast milk is quite thin. Though it's really delicious is what I feel right now.]

Remillia-san might catch a cold.....is the reason I made and rapidly sucked the nipple that she presented to me.

The breast milk doesn't come out if I don't suck on the nipple strongly and that is why I wanted to apologize to her for a moment.....Though I was filled with indecent feelings while I was sucking on her breasts strongly.

I'm a baby and that's why I can't possibly live if I don't suck on breasts.

Though it seems like they are giving me goat's milk when my mom can't give me milk, Goat's milk is considerably expensive.

For the sake of our Family's finances, I need to drink my mother's breast milk as much as possible.

“.....wapu.....” [2]

“Good boy.....I'm truly sorry okay, because it won't go out if you don't suck on it more.....uhn.....”

The taste of Remillia-san's breast milk is like, the gentle sweetness of her breast milk's lactose felt really pleasant.

Though any further would make her nipples swell is what I wanted to ask her consent with.

She's thinking that her beloved son which is me had an empty stomach and that is why she presented to me her breasts.

.....However this can be considered as poison to the mind of a virgin.

Though I can wait for time to pass for me to be weaned, in the present time, I just have to cry a little for me to be able to drink.

When she takes out her breasts, I can't help but turn my head away due to embarrassment. Occasionally I would grumble and be taken outside.

“Hah.....You’re finally accustomed to it right? Even though you’re my baby, you’re having this weird feeling while sucking my milk huh.....”

Though I became disinterested and started to suck her nipples again, Is she trying to transmit her feelings to me. I am really sorry Remillia-san.

I’ll become a good child as much as possible so please let me go on an adventure as early as possible. I’ll absolutely make you two proud of me.

“.....Even so, it seems you don’t like me so much, maybe you like your father more.”

[Th-that is.....argh.....]

Remillia-san sighed as I realized I wasn’t looking at her that much.

In my past life, it was possible for me to look at my mother’s face but it can’t be helped that I still haven’t been accustomed to this things yet.

I’m also uncertain if this will be solved through the passage of time.

My father in this different world is a lumberjack.

Wood can also be used for armor of initial equipment and since one would need a large quantity of it to make facilities, houses, etc. It’s became the number one necessity for Manufacturing jobs in early stages.

My father——Ricardo’s status is like this.

Such a muscle brained warrior.

My father has [Armor] and [shield] equipment and even [Elegance] skill. This means that my father has a good standing in the society.

Though, he does resemble the captain of the knights in the coming future in the campaign story.

Knights also have court ranks so that’s why they are also treated as aristocrats and that’s also the reason why they have the [Elegance] skill too.

His [Wood craftsmanship] skill is only 12 which mean that he wasn’t born as a lumberjack.

Ricardo-san’s goes to the forest every day at the time he decides to go and he cuts some trees, Subjugates some monsters and takes the items he gets to our house and finally he hunts some animals sometimes.

Though a person needs the skill [Hunter] to acquire the action skill [Hunt], if you get a person who has a [Hunter] skill and assign them as a party, the whole party will temporarily gain the [Hunt] active skill.

Our neighbor’s is a hunter family named Roneia and it seems that while I was being born, there was also a child born to that house too.

Roneia-san's wife who was called Sarasa-san sometimes brings her child and comes over to our house.

Leona Roneia. That's the name of the child of Sarasa-san. [3]

"It looks like Leona-chan would become a beautiful girl in the future. Her facial features are the splitting image of Sarasa-san."

"Hiroto-chan also resembles his Ricardo-san, he would become a handsome man in the future. It would be wonderful if he gets along well with Leona."

Sarasa-san's manners are very tender and a little transient.

Though I haven't looked at her status yet, I know that she's hiding her ears.

I know that she's not human.

In other words, since she has the same name as the NPC in the game version that I played, I had already understood what kind of being she was.

Though the game graphic's facial features is what I remember, when you see the actual face of a very beautiful woman then you couldn't blame me for not recognizing her at once.

"Our child isn't quite attached to either me or Ricardo. Though, that's also a cute part of him."

"Fufufu....Our child here is also like that. Sometimes I don't know the reason why she cries and it becomes troublesome when that happens."

"Ah, about that, Hiroto is very comprehensible. When he gets hungry, he would cry at that time and when I approach him, he gets nervous and fidgets in a cute way."

"Isn't he just glad that his mother came? He's already attached to you greatly."

Oh dear, If an 18 year old woman is breast feeding you, it can't be helped that I would get nervous.

Though it's already been 1 month since I was born, I've already given up on weaning because I can't seem to get accustomed to it.

Though I'm making an effort of not being too pleased so much, because Remillia-san sometimes feels good when breast feeding me, I'm now unsure of what I should do already.

In the meantime, Sarasa-san went to the cradle of where I was in.

Hmm, what should I say....Though she's concealing it, She is truly a Half Elf.

She's filled with a gentle aura and compared to Remillia-san, her breasts are way bigger than the former.

Only a little number of half elves are in human territory. I know the circumstances behind it and though I also know that she is also related to a quest that will be generated later, but since I'm a baby who can't get and advance in a quest, I'll just stand by and wait and see for a while.

TL Notes:

1. "Poron" is sound effects of breasts bouncing up and down like when a big breasted girl is running without wearing a bra.

2. Strong breast sucking noises.....As expected of the god of breast milk sucking.

Chapter 2: Trapped Choices

“Please get along with Leona okay, Hiroto-chan”

“.....ah.....uu...”

Since it’s not possible for me to talk, I turned my face away from Sarasa-san who was peeking over at my cradle.

Ricardo papa and Remillia mama had a troubled look on their faces many times already.

——However I had forgott en something.

I had a passive skill obtained from the [Negotiation] skill which doesn’t work on my family but is very effective to people other than my family.

◆Log◆

- 「Charisma」has been invoked ! 《Sarasa》’s attention has been obtained.
- 「Charm」has been invoked ! 《Sarasa》failed to resist and has entered in the state of Charmed.
- 《Sarasa》sees you with good will.

•《Remillia》muttered.「I won't give over our Hiroto to Leona-chan.」

(Oh shi-.....The effect of my passive skill worked.....!)

“.....!?”

Sarasa-san's got shocked and her body trembled. I'M SORRY, It's my passive skill's fault.

Timidly, I looked over at the log that has flowed to my head a little while ago.

Being able to read the reaction of a person through the window's display is very scary to me and that is why I tried to various things to the window and made it into Non-display mode.

When I did that, the information displayed on the window flowed into my mind.

First of all, when [Charisma] skill was invoked, I was able to see the status of Sarasa-san.

The [Charisma] skill itself is remembered by various occupations because it's effect is [Depriving another person's attention] .

When this skill is invoked, you will be able to invite other people to a party by affirming them with the active skills [Persuade] and [Request].

Even without obtaining the skill [Judge], with the [Charisma] skill, you can see the status of another person and be able to invite them to a party.

“....Remillia-san, as I thought, you can expect many things from Hiroto-chan. Though he's a baby who still can't talk.....I feel like he has something that other people don't have."

"Hmm....the midwife also said the same thing about Hiroto." [1]

Because I already fell asleep after the long cry I had after I was born, I wasn't able to look at the log at that time.

The log disappears after a fixed time passes and that is why it can't be used as a convenient record of action that has happened.

That is why maybe when I wasn't aware of it, it's possible that my passive skill was invoked to any person that went near me aside from my parents.

However, when one's level is low, [Charm] won't easily work even if it's invoked even the other party's level is high.....I'm not saying that the success rate is 0%. When it succeeds then like this, Sarasa-san will....

◆Dialog◆

▪《Sarasa》 is waiting for your command。 Will you command her ? YES / N
O

The log will inform you of the present circumstances and in contrast, it will ask for the user's selection.

However, if you don't select anything then the dialog will show [Time over].

Though the [Charm] skill succeeded, I didn't have any desire in ordering my neighbor's wife.

Though I want to know what kind of child this Leona is, well, the chance might exist even if I keep on being silent.

Though there's a chance that she wouldn't like me because I suck at communicating.

A-anyways....I want to release Sarasa-san from the [Charmed] state....but the only thing I'm able to do right now is cry.

“...ugya!...ugya!...” [2]

“Ara Ara, hiroto, did you get surprised...or is your tummy empty?”

Remillia-san who was sitting in a chair at the table near me stood up from her chair.

However, her mana hasn't finished in recovering immediately after breastfeeding me a while ago.

“I just gave him milk a while ago so that's why milk still won't come out of my breasts.....What should I do now?”

“Remillia-san, is it alright if I breastfeed him instead? When I breastfeed Leona, there is still excess that remains after....”

——OH, MY, GOD.

Even though I did pray to the goddess that reincarnated me, my mental state of mind wasn't really praying to her.

Even though my baby period can already be called a blessed period of my life because of being raised by a beautiful woman like Remillia-san....by no means did I also thought the Neighbor's wife would also be affected because of me.

Before my reincarnation, our neighbor's wife always said “That Hiroto-kun, it seems like he is now a burden to the Morioka household because he became a shut-in” is what I heard from the neighborhood's gossip on a mid-afternoon day.

Well, this is not a good time to be remembering stuff like that.

Right now, it seems like Sarasa-san is trying to breastfeed me even though it might overwork her and that is why it is necessary for me to confirm it.

That's the only thing that a baby like me can do.

I prayed quietly in my heart and by the effect of the [Charisma] skill, It became possible for me to see Sarasa-san's status window which developed inside my mind.

Even though 40 mana points were consumed from her, it's because she breastfed Leona a while ago.

However, I was overwhelmed by the other information that I got from her.

She was a half elf as I thought....and that would be the beginning of the quest that will be generated later, other than that, what overwhelmed me was the level of her [Maternity] skill which was 75.

Even though I was really surprised of the existence of the [Breastfeed] active skill, the existence of the skill [Milking] was too tremendous for me.

It's true that her breasts are really big, and when people who have these kinds of big chests don't squeeze them then their mammary glands would become blocked is what I heard from rumors though it's pretty reasonable.....there are also other skills where you would want to retort to so I can't use all of it as a reference.

I couldn't overlook the [Slave] skill entry.

This means that she has an experience of being a slave.

What kind of troubled roads did this half elf woman go through in her life, I was filled with complex feelings when I recalled the content of the game version of this world.

Though there is a time like this where we can peacefully live, will I really be able to watch this kind of scene.....

"Right, so.....Hiroto, it looks like you're hungry. Sarasa-san, if it's alright with you, please give some of your milk to our child. Is that alright Leona-chan?"

"kyaa! Kyaa!" [3]

Leona seems to be considerably friendly.....Though she was born a bit later after I was born, her charm is already spreading it seems.

I can't possibly mimic her.

Wa-wait this isn't the time to hold a sense of rivalry for her.

“Hiroto-chan~....please look over here. Though your mother might be better, please endure it for a while....”

◆Dialog◆

•《Sarasa》 is trying to use the active skill [Breastfeed] on you. Will you permit her to use it on you? YES／NO

Sarasa-san took off the belt on her comfortable clothes that she wears for the sake of breastfeeding Leona and she exposed her breast to me.

[....awesome....]

I couldn't do anything but admire the spectacle before me.

To me who was a baby, before me was a magnificent mountain range.

It was shaking with a Purun Purun and when I tried to look up, it was really huge that I even turned my face away from it.

I can't imagine how she could support such large breasts.....Can the brassieres of this world cover up this chest?

To an additional explanation of the [Maternity] skill, it's written that one's chest would grow with the numerical value of 0.2x for each level up.

She was already a big breasted woman originally so it's calculated that her breast grew about 15% with the help of her [Maternity] skill level.

In contrast to that is Remillia-san with a growth of 5% or less.

Since there are variations from individuals and though my respect for my mother won't change.....I thought that such a magnificent bust would only be possible in anime.

There will be no complaint that Sarasa-san has the overall victory. Though I don't know what kind of tournament it is.

Furthermore, after she has shown me the pink part of her breasts, Sarasa-san became embarrassed and her cheeks burned red all over.

It goes without saying that the obvious reason on why she is being conscious of a 0 year old boy is because she was in the [Charmed] state.

(Can I really suck on her breasts even on her condition like this.....)

"It's alright so you don't have to hold back....Hiroto-chan, since Leona-chan tummy is already full and I squeeze the left over and just throw it away."

"...ah..uu.."

Since I can't talk, I wouldn't be able to answer even if she talks to me

However in this situations, there exists a way for communications in this cases.

And that is the Passive skill that can be acquired when the level of one's [Negotiation technique] is 100.

[Choices]

When one sets this skill up, the system will calculate the effective actions available for the situation and 3 choices are raised.

Because all mana will be consumed after calling upon this skill, if one doesn't have any way of replenishing mana then this best card cannot be used excessively.

Even though I'm just a baby, there still must be an effective action for this situation....Please teach me [Choices]!

◆Choices Dialog◆

1 : Give 《Sarasa》 permission to [Breastfeed] you.

2 : Give 《Sarasa》 permission to [Breastfeed] you.

3 : Give 《Sarasa》 permission to [Breastfeed] you.

[Wait just a minute.....! ! !]

Are you saying that there's no room for a baby to select any other action....the system is urging me to let her breastfeed me.

I'm being forced, are the words that are floating in my mind right now.

◆Log◆

▪《Remillia》muttered.「You're not thinking that a bigger chest is better right? Sigh even Hiroto is like this.....」

▪《Leona》is laughing.

▪《Sarasa》is blushing while looking at you.

Remillia-san muttered with a little bit of jealousy and it's displayed in the log without any mistake.

I called upon the choices again since it was necessary to select either.

[....oh god, please forgive this hungry baby.]

Because I didn't understand what I was asking for forgiveness, for the time being, after I prayed to the gods, I looked over at the choices 1, 2, and 3 and with a regretful mindset, I selected number 2.

Sarasa-san held me up and she sat on a chair. And now I turned my face towards her chest.....

“Sarasa-san, you're whole face is burning red.....Don't tell me, to our child.....?”

“N-no! There's nothing wrong with me.”

It seems like in my new life, the beginning is already in the climax. Wait what I would do if it really ended...

At the first try, milk didn't come out from Sarasa-san's nipples so I sucked her nipples in front of me once again.

Though I know that this is necessary, it seems like I'm starting to get a Breast phobia. It resembles the likes of being scared of Manjuus.

▪ 《Remillia》 murmured。 「It looks like she wants to take home hiroto.....
Sarasa-san, You're dangerous.」

Remillia-san's concern is justifiable....I didn't expect that just by being breastfed, I would be able to attain a new skill.

Perhaps, because she had the [Magic Attainments] skill, then the skill was passed on to me.

However, even when I drink the milk of Remillia-san, it raises the level of the [Elegance] skill.

Can anyone even consider this drinking breast milk method balanced?

Wait, what the hell am I thinking while looking so great like.

I'm really grateful for getting skills by just being raised like this that I'm starting to cry tears of joy.

It looks like Leona is succeeding enough [Magic attainments] level from Sarasa-san.....Will this child become my childhood friend?

I thought of this while now being carried by Remillia-san and Leona being carried by Sarasa-san.

“Kyaa! Kyaa! ♪”[4] [5]

Chapter 3: Skill Raising Start!

Even though Leona was still a baby, she had a pair of big and beautiful round eyes.

Perhaps she will grow into a beauty in the future is what I thought. Anyways, I was a useless childhood friend at one point in my past life.

Though It's still good while I'm a baby, when I come to the stage of me being able to talk, my communication problem will be exposed.....then my childhood friend will be caught in my [Charm] skill and we would get along well.

Well above all else, though I thought that I couldn't do anything in my period as a baby, I understood that I had to get more skills.

After Sarasa-san returned to her house, my father — Ricardo-san and the Husband of Sarasa named Heinz returned from their work in the forest.

Ricardo-san's gathered timber and the raw materials from the monsters he subjugated are sold and turned into money which seemed to be 15 silver coins and several copper coins.

Since he only rests for 1 day each week, the average income of our household is 300 Silver coins ever half of the month.

From all the lumberjacks in the town, Ricardo-san is the one who earns a lot.

So that Remillia-san won't suffer from our household finances, when the tired Ricardo-san returns home, she serves him a Stew with Venison inside and some toasted bread.

"Thank you for the hard work today, Ricardo. A while ago, Sarasa-san from the Household of Heinz-san went here."

"Yeah, it's wonderful to have a good relationship between neighbors. Oh Hiroto, Have you been energetic today again?"

Ricardo-san who was in front of his meal stood up and went to my cradle and held me up in his arms.

Being held up by my finely muscular father, normally a baby would be so happy and go “Kyaa Kyaa”, but my face became sullen. [1]

Though in my inner thoughts, I was very glad that my father is carrying me but as always, I couldn't skillfully show it to him.

“Hmm, you still aren't attached to me as I thought. Well maybe it's because were both men.”

“About that, this child seemed to be attached to Sarasa-san a while ago”

“What, Is that true? You shouldn't poke your head on places like that Hiroto boy, She's the wife of my best friend you know”

“...kuh...” [2]

I just made a sound to express my complaint since I can't talk yet and Ricardo-san raised his eyes and started to laugh.

No matter how you see it, this guy looks like a handsome Hollywood actor.

Since I succeeded his blood, will I have a different face from my past look.....?

Since I still haven't looked at a mirror yet, I had no idea what I looked like.

I remember. [3]

Ricardo-san with a wild evil face like that and had a powerful body like those gladiators in Rome.

Since Remillia-san is using a ponytail hairstyle, she had an impression of a sporty girl to me.

When compared to Ricardo-san, Remillia-san has the appearance of an innocent angel so Ricardo-san now somewhat has a criminal smell in him....

Well, the women in this world get married early. Late marriages in Japan are popular so I unexpectedly compared it.

"Well I'm also a man so it's not like I don't understand you. Though you're mother is also beautiful, the wife of Heinz is also considerably beautiful."

"Oh wait just a minute dear, I can hear you, you know. Please don't teach weird thing to Hiroto now."

“So-so-so-sorry sorry. But you shouldn’t worry since, my Remillia is the only woman I need.”

“Sigh...You’re always like that darling.”

Though their communications was too vanilla for me but since they’re just a newly married couple then I’ll just overlook it for now. Since a virgin like me has a virgin like philosophic view in these situations.

Since after giving birth to me, though I can’t see well at night, it seems like I’m gonna get a little brother or sister.

Though I had a little brother in my previous life, he was more successful in life than compared to me and he got along with Kyousuke too. [4]

Well if I didn’t hear the news from my little brother then I wouldn’t have known that Kyousuke and Hina was going out and I wouldn’t end up like that.

However gradually, when I recall my past life like this, I don’t get sad anymore.

Though I won’t forget about my past, since my consciousness today is focused in this world, I don’t think much about the past nowadays.

In the World of [Eternal Magia], where no one can defeat me, the place where I belong.

Though my past life was impossible for the communication disordered me but in this world will become a necessity to other people.

Not just for my parents, I want other people to acknowledge my existence as a necessity for them.

While think about this in my still luxurious lifestyle.....I'll accomplish it... someday.

“Ara Ara, it seems like Hiroto is thinking about something. So does this mean babies also have things the think about deeply?”

“I wouldn't be surprised if he's thinking about love affairs right now. Alright Hiroto, You'll be taking a bath with papa later.”

“.....Ugya,Ugya?!” (TL note: disgusted baby noises)

“Darling, you're sweaty and smell bad from working all day in the forest. I'll take a bath with Hiroto so you should take a bath alone for now.”

“Muuu.....Then I’ll just leave it like that but if he always takes a bath together with his mother then won’t he grow up as a weak man?”

The sulky Ricardo-san made an apologetic sad face as I am held up by Remillia-san and went inside the bathroom.

When I take a bath together with papa, it hurts a little since he can’t control his scrubbing well enough...oh well, I’ll just wash his back when the time comes where I can stand up on my own.

At the mid afternoon of the next day, Sarasa-san visited us again while holding up Leona. Though I thought that she would be released from the [Charmed] state after a day passes.....

◆Log◆

- 《Sarasa》[Charmed] state continues.

- 《Leona》noticed you.

- 《Sarasa》muttered, 「Hiroto-chan, you look very energetic today.....That’s good.....」

[H-Her state isn’t resolved yet....Wait, The bad status hasn’t been released yet?]

The only reason that I can think of from why the [charmed] state hasn't been released yet is because Sarasa-san's affection rate went up too much.

If only I could see her [Detailed Status] then I would understand how much her Affection rate for me. However, it is impossible to see it with just the [Charisma] skill and that's why I can't make a conclusion for Sarasa-san's behavior.

◆Log◆

- 《Sarasa》is cuddling Leona.

- 《Leona 》is delighted.

- 《Sarasa》looked at you.

- 《Sarasa》cheeks blushed.

In the game, if the person watches you and their cheeks blushes means that their affection for you is [Considerably likes you] and means that their affection rate is still rising.

That means that unless her affection rate goes to [Not thinking about you] then she won't be released from the [Charmed] state.

Is that it....? There's no one near here who can recognize Sarasa-san's abnormal status though.

“...Remillia-san, it seems like you can't release your hands from weaving huh.”

After Sarasa-san said her monologue, she proceeded to where I was while still holding Leona.....Thi-This is...

◆◆Dialog◆◆

▪《Sarasa》is trying to use the active skill [Breastfeed] on you. Will you permit her to use it on you? YES／NO

[I-I knew it.....uwah....!]

Sarasa-san brought her baby to her other hands and easily took out her breast....my senses have already becoming strange too.

Half elves have long lives and while Sarasa-san is already 123 years old, even if you look at her in different ways, she would still look like a girl in her 20s.

If a person like that easily shows her breasts to me many times then my morals would get twisted easily. [5]

“I knew it, One’s mother is still better than others....I’m sorry for making you do something unreasonable.”

Leona immediately stuck to Sarasa-san’s nipples with a Paku sound.

The information in the Log flowed into my brain which was about Leona’s [Magic Attainments] leveling up.....ku, The skill level rises and hunger is satisfied which makes this an ideal opportunity for the me who is seeking an efficient play style.

Though I didn’t select anything from the dialog a while ago, a new Dialog flowed into my mind again which means that Sarasa-san hasn’t given up yet.....Sh-she’s so persistent.....

◆◆Dialog◆◆

◆・《Sarasa》is trying to use the active skill [Breastfeed] on you. Will you permit her to use it on you? YES/NO

This powerful pressure....because she's in the state of [Charmed], she would do anything no matter what it takes just to breastfeed me.

If this happened in the game world then I would have used my mouse to click on Sarasa-san for my character to suck her milk until her mana is all exhausted.

Since leveling up [Magic Attainments] skill would take a considerable amount of time, it would be great to raise its level as much as possible while I was still low leveled.

However, if I was going to do the act of drinking breast milk then my conscience would become a hindrance to it.

Isn't it alright for me to suck on breasts for milk since I'm a baby right....?

"You don't need to hold back that much you know...? Since Remillia-san is a noble by birth then it's normal for her to have a wet nurse. Instead of the young lady, the wet nurse is the one who will breastfeed the baby."

"...ah.....uh...." [6]

Sarasa-san is earnestly persuading a 0 year old baby.

Because of the [Charisma] skill, she now sees me an independent existence which is making me feel like I'm doing something illegal.

The affection rate of a person in the [Charmed] state can't be lowered.

Since I can't do anything about this situation then shouldn't I just recall the soul of the "Top Player" I used to be and proceed to greedily raise my skill levels?

[Remillia-san.....I'll be taking the first step of adulthood right now.....!]

Though my mother won't be pleased with a decision such as this, I chose [YES] with my thoughts still trembling.

In the end, I only felt like I was brave, powerful and apologetic.

I was allowed to suck on her other breast opposite to where Leona was sucking.

A white mountain began to draw near with its different colored tip.....and the nipples became erect at the time of breastfeeding.

I wasn't thinking of any perverted lines like "That is because breast milk is nature's Divine providence" or something like that.

I didn't also think something like "I don't want to just suck on her breasts....I also want to fondle them.”

“Uhn..... Nku..... Pu.....” [7]

“I-I’m sorry, It seems like I used a bit too much force. Please suck more slowly now.....my milk won’t run out so easily~.”

The maximum value of Sarasa-san’s mana is 264 and one use of the [Breastfeed] skill consumes 10 mana points.

10 rounds of breast sucking won’t be a problem considering the natural mana recovery rate.

Though stopping at 1 round would be more gentleman-like.

◆◆Log◆◆

▪ You are now receiving 《Sarasa》’s [Breastfeed] skill. Your HP has been recovered.

▪ [Magic attainments] skill has grown

◆◆Dialog◆◆

◆▪《Sarasa》is trying to use the active skill [Breastfeed] on you. Will you permit her to use it on you? YES／NO

[I knew it.....Even if I end it at one round but as long as I order it, how many times could I receive her breastfeeding?.....Until her mana is exhausted.....?]

The last time I used [Choices], I consumed all of Sarasa-san's mana and she immediately went to sleep right after she got home.

There's a possibility that one would lose consciousness after consuming all their mana and there's also a possibility of going mad when it becomes – 100.

Maybe one should also watch out for their MP likewise to their HP.

With this conclusion, I'm also at fault for consuming Sarasa-san's mana.....is what I thought.

However, when my skill level rises and my HP recovers, I get a blazingly hot impulse which makes me think “I want to keep on breast sucking as long as [Magic attainments] skill is leveling up!”

[The truth is.....The truth is that I want to bathe in her milk while sucking on her nipples. I’m really sorry for Remillia-san but I really want to glomp on Sarasa-san’s breast and suck its milk.]

“.....Leona seems to be full now and she fell asleep, I’ll borrow the bed for a little bit so I can lull her to sleep. Let’s do it again after this~.”

The way she said that was so EROTIC. Is that really alright? I’m a 0 year old you know.

Oh well, It’s not a problem since I am a 0 year old, right?

What a good excuse.....

To receive and suckle breasts of another man’s wife without angering the husband, one just has to reincarnate to another world. [8]

Well, you just have to be skillful in using your skills for these to happen.

Afterwards, I seek confirmation from the log.

Since I now have a Breast phobia, my memories of what happened flew away already.

I don't really understand who I'm making these excuses for though.

For the peace of our household, I was having an affair....no, I was suckling in order to raise my skills in a moderate pace is what I was thinking.

Thank you. I obtained 2 skills from suckling her which looked like a "Job skill" and a "Race skill".

I was expecting to get the [White Magic] skill but apparently, it's impossible.

However, I luckily got the Sage job skill [Pharmacist].

Normally, one would have to join a Pharmacist guild and do a quest in order to get this skill.

“Th-then.....I’ll be excusing myself for today. L-Let’s take it easy and have a conversation again sometime.”

“Yes, please visit our house AFTER I do my job at being a mother to Hiroto, Understand Sarasa-san?”

“Dah.....dah.....” [9]

Though Remillia-san is retraining Sarasa-san, she lowered her anger for the charmingly cute Leona in Sarasa-san’s arms. It really is a fact that cuteness is justice.

“Good grief.....I can’t lower my guard now. Hiroto, it’s not good to always suck on other women’s breast when you’re hungry okay?”

“.....dah”

Even though I showed a cute apology with all of my might, it didn’t seem to be cute at all and Remillia-san just made a wry smile.

Though if the passive skill [Charm] is invoked then my cute apology would still work on way or another.

No, it's not really good to depend on skills that much.

Even though i have been marked by Remillia-san because of what happened with Sarasa-san, that still won't make me give up on raising my skills is what I concluded.

Excluding Sarasa-san, some friends of Remillia-san who also live in the neighborhood also frequently visits here.

And I also learned one thing.

Even if a woman doesn't have a child but is in the right age then her [Maternity] skill would also be level 20 and this case, there are many women who can be proof to this statement.

Three young women came to our house today to have a tea party.

The tea of our house is considerably valuable and since our family's income is alright then Remiria-san wasn't very stingy towards her friends.

Since Remillia-san is a noble woman at birth then social intercourse like this is serious business for her.

「Remillia, Can i take a look at your baby?」

「Yes, it's alright. Though I think he's asleep right now....oh, he's been facing to the other side there.」

「Maybe he's nervous since there are unknown people who came to his house?」

Although I have anxiety over strangers, it's hard to hate a baby like me.

Though i still didn't know the names of those 3, I'll just check it on the log that will appear when they get near to me.

I see, the amorous one with a sauvage hairstyle is Tanya-san & the very short one with a boyish impression is Monica-san.

Thus the girl who was a little bit plump and who always wore a smile on her face is Firone-san which was a very cheerful woman.

When I looked at their status, Tanya-san and Firone-san were [Villagers] and it showed that they had different kinds of skills.

Though Monica-san's job was [Hunter], my [Charm] skill didn't work on her.

If it's like this then I can't do anything about this.

In the viewpoint of a skill raiser, I wanted to receive Monica-san's [Hunter] skill through suckling her but.....Even though her [Maternity] skill was 21, it is very difficult to make her listen to my requests since [Charm] wasn't effective on her.

“Hiroto-kun is what you’re called right?....I can feel the same elegance like his mother from him even though he’s still so small.”

Tanya-san who was at me who was in a cradle was praising me.

Although I raised my [Elegance] skill with 3 skill level ups, I didn’t think there was any effect but.....just having this skill can change the impression of others of you.

When the [Elegance] skill reaches 10 points then the [Manners] skill would be acquired which i believed was insignificant.

「.....Um, Remillia-san, Is it alright if I cuddle this child of yours? 」

「Eh, yes it’s alright.

Firone, what’s wrong? Your face is red all over.」

The Firone-san who was in a [charmed] state became conscious about my existence.

Because she was a plump woman, her chest was quite rich & her [Maternity] level is 20.

Still, even though the skill didn't go up, isn't just getting breastfed by unmarried women make this sexual harassment.....

「Ah, the hot water is boiling now.....Please wait for a moment, everyone.

I'll be making some tea now.」

Remillia-san stood up from her seat.

Thereupon Firone-san held me up to her arms....pl-please stop, suddenly being carried up makes me feel dizzy.

「Ugya, Ugya!」 (TL note: Surprised baby noises)

「Ah!, It's alright it's alright, sorry for suddenly surprising you like that.....」

「Firone, isn't the way you carry him wrong? Hand him over to me.」

「Ah....Wa-wait a minute there, Tanya! 」

I was plundered by Tanya-san.

Never have I thought that the day would come where I would see women fighting each other for me.

At the time when i was a guild master, other than the fact that i was a solo player, for the sake of hiding the advantages of the [Negotiation Technique] skill, I didn't get along with any girls at that time.

Though it was possible for me to have a communication exchange with someone with the means of a keyboard using a business-like way of talking..... Ah, no, I think there was one time that happened though.

There was a time where I was hunting with someone and was told [Isn't this a date?].

Though I'm not sure if that player was really a girl in real life so I'm not sure if that time counts.

If I just didn't seclude myself indoors and went outside then it would be possible for me to go on some offline meetings.

I couldn't even discover the true face of Mikoto-san and Maromayu-san who helped me raise up my guild before i died.

And while i was thinking about those things, Tanya-san and Firone-san were glaring at each other.

Monica-san who didn't have any clue on why those two were fighting made her bewildered by what was happening.

「Wh-what's wrong you two? Just carry him by turns. Hiroto-kun looks like he isn't liking what's happening too.」

「Th-that is.....Besides that Monica, you too want to carry Hiroto-chan don't you.....」

Firone-san who was cheerful a while ago is now scorching with jealousy.

In other words, in the [Negotiation technique]'s skill [Charm] is used as an aid in having the upper advantage in negotiations is what it was supposed to do but now it's helping me out too much

And while I was thinking that, I noticed that I set my [Good luck] on.

When [Good luck] is activated, one would be able to get an unconditional victory in gambling and the probability of other activated skills would have an absolute success rate and those are its effect.

However, [Good luck]'s activation rate at present is still 3%.....I think there's much more hidden for this skill.

From here on will be just my conjecture but, in regards to a baby and a woman who has [Maternity], it seems that their resistance rate against my skills gets lowered.

Otherwise, succeeding like this would be too easy.

「F-for me....Though I thought I want to look at the child a while ago, I didn't think of anything other than look at it.」

「Even though you're talking like that.....With a cute child like this, it won't end with only looking! 」

「(N-no, Isn't it alright to just look?.....W-woah....) 」

Witnessing the dispute between Monica-san and Tanya-san made me apologetic for a moment.....would I be able to undo the [Charm] skill in the future is what I formulated as a target goal in my thoughts.

Tanya-san who was carrying me suddenly looked at me with gentle eyes.

Th-This is....!!!

「Geez Tanya....Sigh.

Well, let's go by turns then. What would you be doing Monica? 」

「I-I'm fine. You two are acting a little weird you know?

Don't go running to me afterwards okay.」

Monica-san's words were justifiable.

It's exceedingly natural to stop a friend from suddenly breastfeeding another woman's baby.

Ho-however.....since Tanya-san who is showing her chest to me, it's surprisingly big.

I'm not saying that Remillia-san was small but this town's women seems to have an excellent physical development.

When I observed her age, she was still 19 years old though.

Even though my skills won't go up, my HP would still be replenished.

「(Se-Seriously.....Drinking the breast milk of a [Villager] would raise my [Physique]....!)」

My sight matched up with Tanya-san in which I immediately turned my face in another direction but then suddenly i was struck with shock that made me tremble a little.

What I did looked like I said「I'm already fine so go away」after I finished suckling on her breasts is what I thought while being apologetic.

Even though the person is a merchant but their job was really [Villager] is how it feels like. In other words, it's an ordinary person

Since it can't be undone then this time, I'll just have to request for Firone-san.

Tanya-san gently gave me to Firone-san and Firone-san exposed her breasts to me like it was the most common thing to do.

Hmm, it looks amazingly tender.....it looks like a large marshmallow is what i feel.

With this, it is now possible to get the cooperation of Monica-san for skill raising in the future.

But for now I can do nothing but sleep.

Chapter 5: Riot in the town

As a baby, I have raised the skills I have acquired greatly.

When I had a chance to come in contact with the inhabitants of the town but first of all, let me show off my skills.

Though I'll apologize for a moment because when I started on my skill raising, I couldn't stop myself from doing it thoroughly by all means.....

It's a better or for worse trait of my past self.

When [Charisma] is invoked and [Charm] has been successful, according to the circumstances, I would be allowed to suckle.

I didn't even imagine that in my baby days that I would be this busy.

However, I'm the only baby in this house, is what I think

If I didn't acquire the [Charm] skill then the success rate of charming someone would be almost 0%.

If I wasn't a baby then I would most likely rely on my [Good luck].

Though it's different from a Succubus or an incubus who specializes in [Charm].

Now that I think about it, I haven't seen any monsters yet....is what i was thinking about when i suddenly recalled something.

The Dukedom of Junegan's western part which was called Miserre, in a place not far from it, there was a dragon living in there is what a legend says.

Even though the Dragon subjugation quest occurred quite early, when the time when I was playing, I didn't get a chance to accept that quest.

「 (.....But in this world, there is no such thing as [not accepting] any quests.

Even a Dragon living here is only a legend but in actual fact, it's really here.) 」

What if the Dragon suddenly appeared in this town.....There is no such thing as a quest in this world so maybe that won't occur is what i was thinking.

「 Hiroto, you've been awfully obedient for a while now....I know you're always quiet but it's alright to be a bit energetic you know? 」

Early afternoon, I who was quietly spending my time inside the cradle, thought that I should slowly be making my real mother happy occasionally.

All I had to say was 「 ah....uh... 」 to make it sound like I was talking to her.

But it's so embarrassing.....but at least I'm trying to talk to them.

Even if she's my mother, it's still embarrassing to talk to her for the first time.

「Oh my, you still can't understand any words huh, there there.」

Remillia-san carried me to her arms and pat my back.

Now is the right time is what I thought as I mustered up my courage.

「.....Ma, mama」

「hu.....R-right now, What did you just say!?!」

「.....poi」

「P-please! This will be Mama's lifetime request so please say it again? Here, I'll even give milk right now!」

After suckling on Remillia-san, would it be impossible to continue tasting her flavor for a little bit anymore, is what i felt.

But even if it's lonely, there's no helping it.

This is what it means to making them happy with my growth.

And I won't be saying 「Mama」 again since I'm stubborn.

It's embarrassing because she's my mother and she would always be sweet and kind towards me.....well, I'll say something again sooner or later.

Isn't my father a former knight, is what I was predicting while trying to ascertain my hypothesis.

Now I am being carried at Remillia-san's back while having our first time of shopping in the market is what I'm talking about.

「Kiii.....!」

Inside the crowd of people, Remillia-san collided with a man by accident.

It would be terrible if my passive skill would be invoked inside a crowd of people but even though i dared to turn it off, it seems to have backfired on me.

「Where the hell are you looking at, ah?」

「Oi, this one's the noble's daughter who came from the capital city.

The one who is living with Ricardo」

「Ah, Ricardo huh. The coward who ran away from the capital Ricardo isn't it.」

They know something about Ricardo-san.....though, their words contained ill will.

Coward....ran way from the capital.

...and while i was thinking, Remillia-san made a move.

PAAAN!! (TL note: Slap sound effect)

「Gua.....Wh-why you!!」

「To all of you, You all do not have any reason to insult my husband!

Now apologize!!」

Remillia-san slapped the man's cheek and courageously said those words.

The people who were passing by the market became afraid of the men who took out weapons, and some encircled the area with a large distance from us and some with quick feet just passed through.

「You were the one who started a while ago okay...Don't tell us any excuses on what were gonna do to you!」

「...Wa, release me this instant!! If you dare touch this child of mine then i would never forgive the likes of you.」

...Thank you Remillia-san.

However, I will be protecting you without fail.

If I use my skill here then maybe everyone here will know that I'm different.

Then, whether if it is possible to live here or not.....I didn't imagine that there would be a fight in our tranquil life but this world IS 「Eternal Magia」.

There would be killers and bandits after taking a step outside the town and even in town, there would be burglars inside too.

Though I liked something severe things like that, This and that is a different story.

「(Passive skill All Activate.....I beg of you.....!)」

I activated the [Charm] skill and if there was a strong person in the surrounding then i would borrow their power.

I could even use one of those three guys with my 「Same sex」 charm].

「Stop right there, you scoundrels!!」

「...what is it you freaking!!!」

A dignified voice has resounded from afar suddenly.

The owner of that voice wore a silvery white armor and had a golden thread like long hair in possession who was a Female knight.

She wore her head armor and a gallant impression is given to her graceful features.

When she gallantly walked in front of those men, she distances herself and drew out a sword.

The crowd surrounding us became larger when they saw what happened.

「Who do you think she is? To a person who lives in the Junegan Dukedom, Do you think that you are allowed to touch her with your dirty hands? You should learn of your shameful behavior!!」

「This is bad, S-she's 《Thunder god Fillianese》.....!」

Fillianese——when I heard of that name, I had been impressed in no small way.

Of course after my passive skill was invoked, I confirmed all those who were affected by my [Charm].

Even though [Charm] didn't work on the three enemies because their hate was too high, it did work on the how many people i don't know around me.

However, The situation wherein it was necessary to hand down an order to them immediately was avoided.

Fillianese Shureze—— thanks to Junegan dukedom's strongest female knight, I was able to acquire enough time to give a calm decision.

「Fillianese-sama, Why are you in such a place like this.....!？」

「Let us leave this conversation for later.....Haaaa! 《PIERCING・LIGHTNING・PARALYSIS》!」 (TL note: It was originally written as 《lightning paralysis piercing》 but it made me cringe so I renamed it)

Thunder god Fillianese. Among the NPC Knights, she ranks supreme as a Female Knight.

As shown in he nickname, combining lightning magic and sword play to for the skill 「Double Magic Sword」 which she is an expert in.

「GUA....!」

「Woah, so fast.....but it's too fast.....」

To what has happened, it was not possible to chase her with these eyes of mine which were still a baby's.

However inside the log, it was shown in detail on the hits from Fillianese's sword play.

◆ log ◆

- 《Fillianese》used the skill「Double Magic Sword」!
- 《Fillianese》has enchanted her weapon with「Lightning」!
- 《Fillianese》has enchanted her weapon with「Paralysis」!
- 《Fillianese》used the skill「Piercing」! 《PIERCING・LIGHTNING・PARALYSIS》! 」
- 《Anton》received 1 2 6 8 damage ! OVERKILL !
- 「Going easy on enemy」was invoked ! 《Anton》fainted。
- 《Ganof》received 1 1 3 4 damage ! OVERKILL !
- 「Going easy on enemy」was invoked ! 《Ganof》fainted。
- 《Fillianese》released her weapons from enchanted state。

「(.....)」

In a reflexively sort of way, The fighting power of Fillianese was extraordinary.

Even if one says she used [Double Magic Sword] but still, she used [Rapier blade mastery] 20's obtained skill [Piercing] to deal a 4 digit damage.

Overkill happens when one deal a damage to an enemy where it's not less than 2 times bigger than the enemy's HP.

Of course the other party would normally die in the given circumstances but since she's a very prideful knight with a [Going easy on enemy] skill, the other party's hp would stop decreasing at 1.

The original also had that setting and when it is used, the enemy would take their loss is what some events looked like.

「Wh-why you.....Even if this woman is like that.....GUA!!」

The last guy who was restraining Remillia-san was suddenly stabbed in the back with an edged tool.....and I was too late to use my hand to hit him.

Before the man could even make a move, he was hit by someone behind him and he collapsed.

Let me take a look at the log to see what had happened.

◆ log ◆

- You have activated the skill 「Charm」。
- 「Charm」 has been invoked ! 《Anton》 succeeded in resisting。
- 「Charm」 has been invoked ! 《Ganof》 succeeded in resisting。
- 「Charm」 has been invoked ! 《Dozar》 succeeded in resisting。

※ Omitted ※

▪「Charm」 has been invoked ! 《Valdez》 failed to resist and has entered in the state of Charmed◆。

One of the 10 people who were affected of my [Charm] was this town's blacksmith Valdez—— The elderly dwarf who was living in the town of Missere, which has fallen for my [《Same sex》 charm] skill.

I immediately confirmed his status to be high and ordered him to help me without fail.

◆ log ◆

▪《Valdez》 used the skill「Fist」 !

▪《Dozar》 received 244 damage ! 《Dozar》 fainted。

「D-dammit.....All of you, remem...ber this....guhe!!」

「Sigh.....fights like this is bad for an elderly person like me」

Valdez's oldness would be roughly 230 years old near dwarf's longevity.

Even though the skill point is lost when aging, his [Physique] is still high with the numerical value of 55.

The skill he used from the [Grappling] skill tree which was the action skill [Fist] was used to deal a 3 digit damage which had the power to defeat those enemies in one blow.

Chapter 6: 【「Raijin」Thunder god】Fillianess

Although Old Valdes was trampling down the scoundrel from above, a dwarf's weight is quite heavy contrary to its diminutive appearance. But well, my mother raised her hands upwards. I want him to satisfyingly accept that.

「Thank you very much, old sir」

「No, it's fine. I also became completely deaf, being delayed after noticing the commotion.」

While Old Valdes was talking, I, which was on the back of Remilia-san, am looked at. Although his eyes were matched to me only momentarily, I still turned my face away.

「Humm, he possess nice eyes. Me being able to perceive it, might possibly be thanks to this child's distinctive character.」

When you [charm] the same sex, a terrible thing..... won't happen. Basically, they will just become friendly. In the game, there was also a case that I occasionally see wherein women use male characters leading to the decrease of same sex characters. There's no girl that hates Yaoi, I think it's considerably close to the truth. Of course, it's an unrelated culture to me.

「While I'm still alive, I want to create and give a tool that's suitable for children.」

「No, no, that's..... just by being kindly helped today, it is I who can't even give a reward.」

「I've just thought so arbitrarily. Hey lad, come play in this Grandfather Valdes' workshop when you grow up. That's if I still remember you though..... houhouhou」

Old Valdes———no, Old Man Valdes left while smiling cheerfully. I really thank you for saving my mother, is what I wanted to say, but was unable to. It had become an awkward feeling, even as I wave my hands.

Since this Charm skill affected ten people or more in the town, a dialog stating 「Do you want to order him?」 was continuously popping out. If I haven't done anything to raise their intimacy rating, charm would be released after 24 hours.

Those men that were stretching, started to take on their guard. In case of the situation like now, 「Where does the fault lie to」, though they are still at fault for starting a fight earlier..... Apparently, the first man whom collided with Remilia-san, was done on purpose. I saw the man called Anton invoke 「Ram」 when I looked at the log..... Although I didn't noticed at first, it was intended to pick a fight from the beginning.

Remilia-san, her HP diminished a little..... doing something like that. However, my anger doesn't have anything to direct it towards to anymore. Fillianess and Grandfather had, knocked down Aton et al. completely.

「Uh, Umm..... Fillianess-sama, thank you very much. I, inadvertently, flared up and raised my hand.....」

「Entrust to the law those who try to act uncouthly to women, the knights of the dukedom won't overlook that. Not to mention, carrying such a very young baby....」

◆Log◆

・「Charisma」invokes! 《Fillianess》paid attention.

Charisma was invoked, Fillianess turned to Remila-san's back, trying to look at my face.

「Uhh, not even turning towards my way.....」

「.....Ah~、Uu~」(Note: =3=) (Meow note: HueHueHue)

It's because you have approached suddenly, is the excuse I want to make. As expected, it is impossible for me to look in the eyes of someone I met for the first time. If I smiled charmingly, intimacy rating might go up.

◆Log◆

・「Charm」invokes! The effect of 《Fillianess》' 「Holy Circlet」prevented the charm from being effective.

The forehead protector that Fillianess wears is a magic item, so it seems to be defending the charm completely. However, the status could at least be seen thanks to 「Charisma」.

It's not like I, am only thinking of raising my skills. As a gamer, I can't simply ignore the status of a strong character as well as the information..... allow me to inspect it.

Although I had expected her to possess many skills, approximately the same amount of information as Sarasa-san..... H-however, this is.....

「(.....F-fourteen years old....!?)」

Thunder God Fillianess' official illustration in the game was a woman in her twenties. She was called by the nickname 「Fil-neesan」, my perception should not have been wrong. She was frequently the character representative of 「BBA Please marry me」 written on the bulletin board. (TL Note: BBA stands for baba which means old woman)

Although she should have been level 60 in the game. Is it because of the age decrease? It's just 30. Nevertheless, her act of pretension is definitely not in vain, it's possible to concur on the fighting power she had shown.

「As expected, a woman that holds a sword, is dreadful for a baby.....?」

Being despondent in front of me, is certainly a 14-year old girl. Rather than a female knight, it's better to call her a maiden knight.

However, a 14-year old to be, stronger than my father Ricardo..... No matter what skill training, if the severity of the training is piled up. I think such strength could be obtained. I also want to follow her example by all means.

「Fillianess, it seems that you knew I'm a noble girl of the dukedom when you came though.....」

「I'm a defender of the dukedom. I know of all the people's names connected to the king's genealogy. Remilia Howlvitts-sama, you, after being married with our knight squad's Axe Knight, Ricardo. Two years had already passed?」

Fillianess kneels before my mother, and bows. At that instant, I noticed one thing. I tasted the feeling of being electric shocked.

My player name 「Sigrid」, was not chosen like when entering the game. I also shouldn't have any parents either..... Nevertheless, in this world, I became a living existence here from the very beginning.

Although I've set up some hypotheses, unless I meet the reincarnation goddess again, verifying my answers cannot be done. As of now, the goddess might possibly used the reason, 「In order to welcome me」, for me to prepare myself. There are parents, that each has their own origin. There is my life. There's also human relationships.

The world that Goddess created on her own, where it's possible for humans to live freely.

But now, I think it's more like her pride.

「Yes, this child is Hiroto..... I and Ricardo's god-given child.」

I want to express my gratitude to the goddess. For being born as the child of Ricardo-san and Remilia-san.

While rocking me moderately on her back, Reilia-san smiles. My mother smiles, in this world.

I want to protect that smile. It's not like I want to recover my worthless previous life though..... Ricardo-san, everyone in the town, even Sarasa-san and Leona, I want to protect everyone.

For receiving that bonus from the goddess, I, whom have been born in this world, should at least repay for that kindness.

「.....Mamma」

「Oh dear..... my Hiroto, seems to be hungry. Fillianess-sama, the reward would have to be postponed for another day, I will definitely do. Well then.....」

「To tell you the truth, I was tasked to come to your house. It doesn't necessarily mean to be with those comrades a while ago. If you don't mind, I also, want to accompany you up to your house though.....」

Fillianess....., though I remember addressing her without using an honorific due to the game sensation in those days, I should apply the honorific soon. Apparently, she, seems to have come to this town due to some inevitable important situation. Considering that she was a character that almost doesn't move, at this point I, can't even imagine what kind of event would occur.

Up to the point far ahead, I cannot think of any quest related to a baby though..... By any chance, I, to Fillianess-san's visit. My chest throbbed secretly.

「W-what? Staring intently at me like that..... Is there something attached to my face?」

「Oh dear..... how unusual, Hiroto is shy when it comes to strangers so being able to look at a person like that. Fillianess-sama, although I'm humbled, it seems that our child is now fond of you.」

「Mm,hmm..... Is it because I helped you? It's not like there's a need for a sense of gratitude though.....」

Of course, although I'm also grateful for rescuing my mother. I, even at such case, sharpened my eyes.

「(Fillianess-san has the maternity skill..... and it to be 35. Despite being 14-years old!)」

In order to see her equipment, she needs to enter the party. Although I haven't seen it yet..... even only in it's outward appearance, I understood what could be determined overall.

She was like that even in the game, with high defensive power. There are also a lot of additional effect from the Full Plate Mail. I don't equip it due to my dislike of the decline of agility, and the decrease of attack frequency.

Instead, my equipment from above are 「Cloth Armor」, 「Shoulder Armor」, and 「Waist Armor」 — the guard equipment around the waist.

「(.....This is a REAL lactating breast..... being 14-years old, maternity 35..... 7% of Plus compensation directed to the bust.....!)」

I couldn't help feeling an earnest admiration. Despite being 14-year old, it's obviously way more big than Remilia-san. Remilia-san seemed small in that case, which by no means to be so. Fillianess-san's body affluency..... no, she's just blessed with rich development.

My judgement on the charm skill is, either it won't take effect unless a short while lapses or, it would be nullified as long as the circlet is worn. Although I'm not aiming too high, as far as that inherent Saint Knight Job Skill 「【Holy】 Sword Skill」 is concerned, I honestly want that so badly but seems out of hand.

Supposing she removed the circlet to let her hair down..... no, supposing her resistance towards 「Charm」 weakened. Would such chance, really show up?

「Oh this child of mine..... Fillianess-sama, please don't repeatedly spoil this child, 'kay. He could immediately attract girls, a very mysterious child.」

「Uh..... However, I'm not someone that's liked by children, Hiroto faced away a while ago, too. Even if I pampered, in case he wasn't pleased, it's better to not do anything at all.」

Fillianess-san became peevish for a moment. As might be expected, suckling from the strongest class NPC cannot be done, huh..... There's no choice but to give it up. Considering that there was no woman not less than 18 years old with maternity 20 or more until now, regarding a 14-year old girl, a considerable sense of immorality could be felt.

In order to get her to remove her equipment, apart from that powerful equipment that could only be handed over. Even if she hand it over through the 「Exchange」 skill, she doesn't carry any more items with the same value as the holy circlet.

Although I could also 「Exchange」 money and items, if I don't walk over it, the 「Pick Gold」 that I acquired when I got the luck skill won't activate. That's why presently, I've had zero property. Moreover, the circlet magic item might have a remorseful value worth 100 gold coins.

(All possibilities are hopeless, huh..... yeah. For the time being, isn't it fine to just understand something from her task?..... Even though it recovers through time, I should somehow restore my mother's HP)

——I still, had forgotten today's occasion.

Unlike the game, in this world, there is an opportunity to absolutely remove an equipment no matter the kind of person.

Chapter 7: The Two Following Knight

Fillianess is now accompanying us to up to our house with her two subordinates.

「Fillianess-sama, leaving us midway and running of is very awful ~」

「Since I know that were using half plate mail equipment and it's heavy so that's why our legs become less capable. Though I know that we intended to advance in a fixed pace, I'm sorry for leaving you two on my own convenience.」

「Even though were using light equipment....Fillianess-sama's feet are too quick.」

The two knights who were following her who named themselves Margit and Aretta was much older than Fillianess-san but they were using honorifics while talking with Fillianess-san.

Margit-san is a Saint Knight who is employed as a knight and Aretta-san is a medic.

Though it's a Recovery type job, but since she is being able to use a weapon to some extent, she wasn't given the job of in the knights as a recovery magic user 「Healer」 but the job of a Medical unit 「Medic」 is a situation that is known.

「I'm truly sorry, even carrying our luggage. You are truly a help.」

Though Remillia kaa-san was in the middle of shopping but because she was injured, the luggage was handed over to Margit-san.

「Ah, It's alright~. Even though I'm slow in walking but I have more strength compared to Fillianess-sama.」

「Muu..... Even I, after this will be piling up an even more severe training than last time. I would be troubled if you get too full of yourself」

「Isn't there already a strong power in those slender arms of your Fillianess-sama? There also isn't anyone who can defeat Maru-san in arm wrestling either.」

Margit-san seems to have the nickname 「Maru」.

I who is being carried by Remillia-san on her back was inclining my ears to hear those three's conversation.

◆Log◆

・「Charisma」 has been invoked ! 《Margit》 & 《Aretta》's attention has been obtained.

「(No no, I don't plan on looking at their status immediately.)」

Maru-san and Aretta-san approached me to see my face.

Maru-san's stature is tall, she has a long red hair which is connected with a tie and she is still a white beauty even though she had freckles.

Even though her whole body is hardened by a half plate mail equipment, the chest and joints part were still manufactured for a woman's use.....Seems like there are differences for armor intended for male and intended for female.

And Aretta-san has a weightless-like semi long brown hair which looked like the appearance of an office lady from an office district in Real life. She looks like a university student for her age.

「.....Please look at my direction~. Or I'll have to use force to make you look here~」

「Forcefully making him look here, what the hell are you saying to a baby? That's obviously bad.」

◆Log◆

・「Charm」 has been invoked ! 《Margit》 failed to resist and has entered in the state of Charmed。

・「Charm」 has been invoked ! 《Aretta》 failed to resist and has entered in the state of Charmed。

「....uh, hmm? There's some weird feeling in my chest for a minute...I didn't eat anything peculiar though.....Aretta-chan, can you take a look at it later?」

「Me too, there's something....It's like I can't settle down or something. Ah, Um, Remillia-san, what is the name of this child.....?」

「Ah, that again huh.....I can't believe you Hiroto. I'm really sorry okay? This child has some mysterious sides.」

It's dangerous to pamper me, it's what Remillia-san is explaining now. It might be certainly right and that's why from today onward, I will be rising up my target.

It looks like I'm gradually turning into a bad guy.....

However, 「Suckling」 is not an evil deed. (Editor Note: Indeed, as long it has benefits and don't harm others. It's more like a GOOD deed for them. (◡‿◡))

Doing an evil deed raises up the 「Karma」 meter and I'm sure that it will be displayed in the log..... It would display it in a system like way that there's no problem with that deed.

Regardless of the 「Karma」, for the sake of not making my mother jealous, I'm not sure if I should stop receiving breast milk from others.....

(At the time when I have the ability to move by myself, and if something like a while ago were to happen.....At that time, I want to protect my mother myself.)

「Mu....He's eyes are looking at something far away. Even though he's still a baby, I'm not sure as to why he has this deep prudent impression.」

「Even babies various thing they think about ya know~. Even though he's not looking this way, he's really cute huh. Ah, baba~ licky licky ba~ ! 」 (TL note: baby talk imitation or making a baby laugh expressions)

「Maru-san, just in case if you have forgotten, you are a member of the knights mass so.....please have a bit of respect for yourself.」

Even if Maru-san's body is big but her heart is still that of a girl.....Quite different from the game.

It's because she's standing close to Fillianess that she has this fresh feeling from her.

I also didn't know that Aretta-san was a serious character.

In the middle of the church in the north part of Miserre is where large residences have been gathered.

One of those large residences is our house.

The population of this town is about 1500 people and about 300 families were in this neighborhood.

Since the population is much bigger compared to the game, almost all the people I see are people I do not know but sometimes there are people I do remember.

Though Sarasa-san was one of the people I remember, only Heinz and Riona were the one who didn't appear in the game. (TL note: That's because Sh—◆Log◆ Translator-san was hit with the skill 「Death」. Translator-san received 9999999 damage! OVERKILL!)

Our family and Sarasa-san's family are the same with only having three members which was a scarce case since 5 – 6 members of a family was the average.

Though Sarasa-san's family lived beside ours but their house is smaller compared to ours.

Ours is two stories and it even has a basement while Sarasa-san's is only one storied building.

Just goes to show how great the difference is with Remillia mama's descent.

Though the town is enclosed with a hedge made of lumber and since dangerous monsters aren't frequently seen here, it isn't being strictly defended.

If a goblin would show up suddenly, the guards would quickly repel and capture them.

Even though there were low level monsters and small animals near the town, they would go near town except for mating season and to begin with, monsters mostly don't attack towns.

In other words, Miserre is basically a peaceful town.

Though events like what happened a while ago rarely happens, hereafter, I want to be careful in the future.

「So this is the place of residence of Remillia-sama....As expected, it's made according to the tradition of Harvits.」

「Yes, father inherited it from grandfather, and people from the town was employed to manage it. After Ricardo and I left the capital because of some circumstances, we're now borrowing this place.」

「Since this is your father house then you aren't borrowing it but isn't it better to say that this place has already been given to you?」

Though Maru-san naively presented a question, there seems to be a complex web of ties of the parents of Remillia mama and that's why she expressed it with the words 「Borrowing this place」.

It was also sensed by Fillianess-san and Aretta-san which made them smile wryly.

「I apologize for my subordinate's insensitivity.....Maru's frankness is a strong point of hers but sometimes she becomes too frank.」

「Uuuh....I-I'm very sorry, I can't read the mood that much.」

「Using improper words will cause you to be exiled from the Knights mass.....is what may happen so please be careful to not let something like this happen again. After all the long wait, and being picked up by Fillianess-sama. 」

Such a thing like Margit-san being exiled from the Knights mass because of letting improper words come out of her mouth exists.....Well what can I say since she's a natural airhead like character.

However, I who was easily misunderstood by other people and being not calm which results in me saying improper words has happened numerous times in my past life but I still had some sense of intimacy back then.

That is why (what do you mean by that is why?), at the moment when I entered the house, I was shown the status of Maru-san and Aretta-san.

「(Just looking at this has let me understand various things)」

If Fillianess-san had 【Way of the Knight】then it would be appropriate for her image but she doesn't have it.

It's not a required skill to become a knight since just satisfying the requirements will let you change occupations.

It still similar to the game.

In short, Fillianess-san was already a Saint Knight to begin with and for the sake of becoming a knight, Maru-san acquired this knight's characteristic skill 【Way of the Knight】

It's nice that she has a big limit, those girls isn't aware of their skills self-consciously.

For arbitrarily omitting those that are necessary, up to the point where active and passive skills are invoked quietly.

There's also an exception though, when executing a multiple of 10.

「(However, Fillianess and the two girls too, I'm getting curious about the passive weaknesses attached to them.....)」

Female knights being weak against orcs means that when the knight squad gets an orc subjugation mission which most likely involve orcs, they will most likely be hit with the orc's skill 【Filthy Shriek】.

A person would get weakened when fighting against an Orc if they hear that skill.

If one manages to defeat and Overkill an orc then 【Weak against Orcs】 would naturally disappear and though Fillianess was 【Slightly weak against Orcs】, Maru-san was ordinarily 【Weak against Orcs】.

Female knights being weak against orcs is an image that 【Eternal Magia】 has faithfully protected which is the reason for this system to be like this.

「(After that is, Fillianess was also weak against slimes....And Maru-san possessed a misfortune skill while Aretta-san is easily angered.)」

I'm not sure if this is a hint for capturing them and it didn't exceed what I already knew.

「(uhn....Wait a minute. 'A rush of blood to the head' is that thing, the bad status you get when entering the bathroom....bathroom.....)」

While I was thinking by myself, Remillia mama guided everyone to the dining room of our house.

Fillianess-san had a clam appearance while modestly surveying the surroundings of the house, Maru-san was normally approaching the furniture and looking at them and Aretta-san was sighing while putting her palm to her cheek.

These three girls have their own respective personalities huh.....Though it's the same with Tanya-san and the others.

「Ladies, you all are tired from the long trip right? I'll heat up the bath so please enter the bathroom and freshen yourselves.」

「Is it really alright? We were planning on renting an inn in the town though.」

Fillianess-san coyly inquired my mother's thoughtfulness.

Mom cheerfully smiled and answered.

「Though Miserre is a small town, the hunting grounds and mines are close to it and that's why adventurers have already applied for several days in the inns. The people who didn't know about that would learn about it in the bars and it would become a terrible situation.」

「Fu.....I'm not really good at places that smell of alcohol ~. I would already feel drunk just by imagining it.」

「Me too, I'd prefer a place to take a rest that isn't noisy and had a roof」

Though Maru-san and Aretta-san frankly said their opinions, it seems that Fillianess-san had the same feelings about it with those two.

「Well then.....We're grateful for this debt. Though I thought that we would have to search for a place to stay after having a conversation with Sir Ricardo, I shall accept your offer to borrow a room in this house.」

「Fufu.....It's alright to not speak with those stiff words. Fillianess-sama is really too serious every time.」

「Mu.....I-I'm a woman who only knows how to use a sword.....I didn't know about impoliteness and that's why when I learned about it while working, I couldn't help but apologize often....」

Fillianess-san was going like 'I see...As I thought so'.

She is blond and had an earth-shattering beauty and with that appearance, I couldn't help but let my closed up desire get stimulated by her even if I'm just a 0 year old.....

「Even though 【Thunder god】Raijin-sama has monster like strength in combat but in reality, you have a exceedingly lovely part of you～」

「Monster like strength you say.....please refrain from using peculiar words like those, Maru-san. Saying that towards the dukedom's strongest Fillianess-sama to be lovely is inappropriate.」

「Mouuu, it's fine already so stop it. Even if you say call me the dukedom's strongest, I'll only get embarrassed.....I'm still inexperienced in many aspects. I'd like to hurry up and grow so that I can look at you two in equal footing.」

Fillianess-san said that as she took out a back pack in her luggage.

It was a leather backpack that even if it doesn't suit a knight's equipment, it was a fairly good to be used as a container 【Inventory】.

In accordance to the game, with only the numerical value shown for the capacity of the inventory, it became a rule of the mass to disregard it and just put their stuff inside....Ah, as I thought, I was right.

When Fillianess-san removed her armor, the Armor, shoulder pad and the chest plate which had the size that seemed to be impossible to put inside the backpack was completely packed inside the bag.

Though I didn't understand how that happened but still, it's very convenient.

「Even though you're powerful, you still have an exceedingly slender body huh....but compared to that....」

「Mu...Well, you can say that even though I can't develop muscles easily, I just compensated it with technique is what I thought to myself.」

Even though the part Remillia-san was gazing is the chest of Fillianess which just got out from her removing her armor, Fillianess-san failed to notice it.

Even though she is thin, her chest was bigger than mine is what my mother was worrying in her mind.

「(Ho-However.....I didn't think that she would remove her armor excluding the clothes armor so this became a really amazing spectacle.....I won't show this Ricardo papa.)」

While shutting my eyes from my own sins, I looked at the three women who have removed their metal armor.

Because Maru-san's stature is high, even with her big chest, she had no gap when compared to Sarasa-san's pair.

「Hou.....」

「Wh-what is the matter Remillia-sama....When make such a reaction as that, I'd be embarrassed.」

「Oh-oh no....I'm terribly sorry, It's nothing so please don't think about it.」

◆Log◆

- 《Remillia》muttered.「Mine isn't small after all, as I thought so.」
- 《Fillianess》muttered.「It's really lucky that we can step in the bath by arriving early. Cause I got really sweaty after the events a while ago.....」
- 《Margit》muttered.「I wonder what's our meal today～」

It would still show in the log even if it's a very quiet muttering and in the future, I hope that this doesn't become a hindrance....is what I thought.

Well if their words doesn't go out from their mouths then it won't be shown in the log.

In other words, It was taboo to speak about breasts with Aretta-san.

Remillia mama's stature was the same as hers yet it can be said that she has a slender figure.

I who have firmly confirmed her Matrnity 19, was thinking if 【Maternity】 was proportional to the size of one's chest.

Because the 【Maternity】 skill gave a plus in size which shows that the difference just extends.....is what I was thinking which is very impolite of me.

However, My stomach became empty because time has already passed from the last time I was breastfed.

I asked Remillia-san to feed me again.....which I did using my thoughts.

「Remillia-sama, you are in an injured state right? I beg for your forgiveness for being late in noticing it....Let me treat you this instant.」

「N-no, It's not really that serious for an injury such as this is nothing much.」

「No, you have received some scratches. If we don't immediately disinfect those grazes...」

Aretta-san's skill is excellent as she treated Mom's scratches on her arms.

She made a 【Clean cloth】 with the use of the skill 【Bandage formation】and after the dressings were made, she immediately use 【Emergency Treatment】 to treat her.

The healing magic which was used in disinfecting was finished up and Mom's HP was completely recovered

「Please take a rest for today. Your wounds will also disappear in several hours.」

「Y-Yes.....but this is troubling. This child still can't bathe alone and it would take a while before my husband come home.」

「If it's alright, we could bathe him ourselves～. Right Hiroto-chan?」

「(WHAT THE-)」

I unintentionally doubted my ears.

I have thought that it was my fate to bathe with papa today, but for Maru-san to unhesitatingly invite me.....well, it's not like she'll really do it though.

「(This happened because they are in a charmed state huh....but I don't want to make Remillia mama jealous though.....Wha-What should I do.....!)」

「U-umm....when you enter the bath with this child, well, what can I say, if you suddenly have a feeling like you want to feed him you breasts....ah, what can I say to explain it more....」

「U-umm, I think I can manage this much so it's gonna be okay. Though it would be impossible for Aretta-chan.」

「Haaa....ha, Please do not say it so clearly! She'd worry more about that!」

「Muu....Even if it's fine for Maru-san, for me.....to this body of mine who I have offered my sword to god, to easily let my nakedness be seen.」

「(Th-That's right! If I would enter the bath with them, it would be obvious that all our equipments would absolutely come off.....and that would also include Fillianess-san's circlet too.....!)」

Though it hasn't been removed yet for now, but of course at the time when she's gonna wash her hair, she would remove it.

At that moment, if the 【Charm】 skill succeeds then....!

「U-umm, Remillia-sama, please, let us enter the bath with Hiroto-chan～ ! 」

「I shall also request for your permission. Umm, This would be for the sake of future references....is what I would like to call it so that's why even if it's rude, if you would let us enter the bath with your baby then it would become a very valuable experience for us.」

「E-even Aretta too....why do you two want to bathe together with Hiroto that much..!!」

Fillianess-san's face reddened as she made a reaction which was like it couldn't believe what was happening.

However, Maru-san and Aretta-san's intentions were completely unwaverable and a gentle glance for me is poured.

——god, I have committed a sin yet again.

In other words, it is because I have given an 【Order】 to Maru-san and Aretta-san.

Even if this deed is unquestionable for the system, The 【Karma】 which couldn't be seen would eventually pile up....Yes, I'm a guy who has sold his soul for the sake of raising my skills. (TL Note: We have a badass over here. Editor Note: Definitely a "KIND and FORGIVABLE" badass for everyone.)

「I-If it's like what you say then....I understand, I'll leave him to all of you. Hiroto, Don't leave me ok?」 (TL note: Don't worry mom, I'll always be with you even if I have a thousand of harems.)

Remillia mama handed me over to Maru-san.

Fillianess-san who is the only one remaining who opposed this idea is now having her lips trembling with a sound of purupuru and her eyes had some tears in it.

Damn.....Seeing a 14 year old girl crying like this makes her look pitiful to my eyes.

However, I have turned my heart into a demon's.

The moment has finally dawned for me to acquire the 【Saint Knight】 skill, inherit the prideful knight's soul and I shall promise to use this power to defend the people.....!

「(Holy・Sword・Skill ! Holy・Sword・Skill !)」(Editor Note: OK, I think of an another Holy Sword Skill in this one.)

The sight of Fillianess-san who was trembling finally made me awaken from my innermost thoughts.

How brutish of me.

But it can't be helped, since there is a Saint Knight in front of my eyes, Would I overlook and walk away from this opportunity? NO!, It's not just that.

While Fillianess-san is staying in this house, I'll absolutely CONQUER her.

This chance for me to come in contact with her while I am still a baby, I'll definitely won't let this chance escape from my palms.

「Fillianess-sama, we didn't say anything about making you do something impossible～. The two of us are enough to help him bathe.」

「Y-yes, that's right. ooh, please don't, I'll be embarassed if you show me those teary eyes of yours....but he's only a baby right?」

「.....da,da」

Even though I'm already scattering my cuteness to her, I still couldn't move Fillianess-san's heart.....There is nothing more that can be done huh.

「I-I.....I don't hate babies. However, Hiroto would turn his face to another way at once. I'm sure that most likely, it would be settled that I would be hated by him.」

「Such a thing would never happen, I just said it a while ago that this boy of ours is really attached to Fillianess-sama. There is no mistake with that.」

「(Mama.....!)」

I who was extremely marked by Remillia mama helped me with her follow up.

Even though she said those words with pure feelings, if it was impossible for me then the only method remaining was to persuade my mother.

「.....If his mother says so. Something like doubting, I won't do such a rude thing」

Fillianess-san who is receiving everyone's glance made a Fuu~ while her expression softened.

And I who was being carried by Maru-san was gently received.

「I don't know if you are afraid of me but please don't be cold towards me. We'll be soaking in the bathtub together later so let's get along well.」

「(I DON'T HAVE A SINGLE REGRET IN MY LIFE....!)」 (TL Note: Whoever doesn't get this needs to man up and watch Jojo or Hokuto no ken.)

Fillianess-san said that while looking at me.

I will never forget this moment.

No, here is where the obstacles shall start.

I will exceed Fillianess-san's guard without fail and it's good if it's only once, but I shall definitely obtain the skill 【「Holy」 Sword】 with these hands of mine.....to the bitter end, for the sake of climbing over the various hardships that shall happen!

「Though he is facing towards the other direction for a long time now. As I thought so, Maybe I should exclude myself from entering the bathroom with him.」

「What are you talking about~, once the 【「Thunder god」】 Raijin-sama declares something then it would be bad if she would withdraw from what she said~. Come on, Let's go!」

「This child.....MY affability with him isn't good but why can't I take away my eyes from him.....What is this thing I'm feeling.....?」

I who is now being taken to the bathroom is seen off by Remillia mama while having a look like she'd given up.

Since I will keep it in moderation, I ask of your forgiveness for leaving you this time.

Now, only at this instant, shall the match of my life start.

Chapter 8: Bathroom 【(Pandemonium)】

In the bathroom of our house, after heating up the water, we would then adjust the temperature of it using cold water and we would save the water for later use in a storage of water like way.

Then we would pull it to the bathroom from outside and the hot water is accumulated inside the bath tub.

While Marle-san was heating up water outside, I who is being carried by Fillianess-san together with Aretta-san is now waiting for the water to heat up.

Because the changing room and the bathroom are inside one room, everyone is still wearing their clothes. This place around here is different from the modern bath.

「Yaay ～, the preparations are done ～. Ah! I've gotten sweaty....」

「Marle-san, for you to the wood on the fire while dressed like that.....I apologize for entrusting that job to you.」

Since Marle-san's appearance is that of only her wearing cloth armor, the sweat gathered and clung to the fabric.....I wasn't aware of the destiny that I was facing which, is the feeling when getting to see a scene where after school club activity girls in their P.E. uniforms get drenched in sweat.

For a moment, there are soot sticking to her face but Marle-san doesn't seem to worry about it.

I really got to say my gratitude to Aretta-san for such a girl while I express my gratitude to her repeatedly.

This relationship of trust, Is it the thing called Close friends.....how enviable.

I gotta make a friend like that too.

「Since their house has a tall wall surrounding it, we can ease our mind from the worry of being seen outside～.」

「Yes, that's right. An aristocrat's residence must be like that.」

Marle-san is such a hard worker huh.

Originally, I wonder if she does housework to support a large household?

Nevertheless.....Fillianess-san's chest has been hitting my cheeks for a while now with a sound effect of Poyo~Poyo~.

If I was just a little bit grown up then I would certainly have a nosebleed right now.

Even for pure and unadulterated babies, they would also gradually reach their limit.

「Now then.....shall we go inside. Marle, Aretta, shall you two enter first? I'll take care of Hiroto while you two are bathing.」

「Okaay. Some way or another, one would value the baby first right, Raijin-sama?」

「You're saying stuff like that again Marle-san....Fillianess-sama is a shy type and that's why she possesses delicacy.」

While reproving Marle-san, Aretta-san started to take off her clothes that she was wearing.

In the middle of that scene I who is on Sage mode while looking at it have at last became aware of the situation.

【「That's right, they still haven't taken it off.....BATHROOM = NUDE isn't it....!」】

While mother is wearing her clothes, she would leave me submerged in the bathtub (aru). However these three have no choice other than to enter in the bathroom with me.

「It's always tied up because of my habit.....fuu...～ Now it's become all twirly. 」

「Your hair truly has a great volume as always huh, Marle-san」

「Before you soak it in the hot water, I'll wash it for you. Since I'm the one who always washes it.」

「No No, it's alright.」

When Margit-san undid her braids and her curled hair reached up to her waist. Though that hair of hers had a hidden exquisite feel with it, The hills on her chest which were like rockets really stands out.....thus when I look at Filiannes-san's height, The things above her chest weren't visible to my line of sight.

「I also would want to straighten my back like Marle-san but.....just what do you do to make it like that?」

「At the time when I was still a baby, my mother fed me lots of breast milk which was her way of raising me ♪」

「Marle-san's mother also has a tall back too right?」

「There's also a family of Giants huh....oh, that was too much. Sorry Marle.」

「Nah ~ When Raijin-sama tells a joke, my chests becomes relieved.」

Because Marle-san's movements are large while she's talking, a certain part of her body is bouncing up and down with a sound of Barun Barun~. If it is slapped like that then it would deal a considerably painful damage.....Is it that thing called Breast slap? No, I'm not even sure if there's a word like that that exists.

「Hiroto-chan too, if you drink a lot of breast milk right now, then you would grow a wot mow yu nooow ~」 (TLN: She speaks in baby talk to Hiroto [, then you would grow a lot more you knooooow ~])

【「Whoa!.....S-So high! too high!」】

Marle-san received me from Fillianess-san and she suddenly carried me up.

It was the same way Rikardo papa carried me though it also has the same height when he carries me too.

And as she lifts me up, her hair that was covering a part of her body slipped away from the thing it was hiding with the sound of Harari~

The cherry blossom season has finally arrived for the two white mountain's summit. People would already understand what I'm talking about with those description.

「.....」

「Ah, He's neatly frozen~. Was it scary? It's not scary at all~」

「The thing about using baby talk is alright, right?.....Just leave that to me, Marle-san. Marle-san is a person who occasionally falls down so it's quite dangerous.」

「Aretta-chan, Are you planning on monopolizing Hiroto-chan as a.....Ah, Raijin-sama, what's the matter?」

Fillianess-san is poking the elbow of Marle-san which is restraining Aretta-san.

「Marle, how about you take off Hiroto's clothes for the time being. Since you're much used to it than me and Aretta.」

「Alright Alright ~」

【「This moment is the most embarrassing moment for me since I was reincarnated here」】

◆Log◆

▪《Margit》has released all of your equipment。

Even I am feeling embarrassed so maybe it's even for the two of us. Even if I see the naked figure of these three..... is what I was thinking but Fillianess hid her face with both her hands. She hasn't even taken off her Circlet too and her cloth armor hasn't been taken off.

「Umm. Filianess-sama, then please don't hide your face.....」

「Na!...Yo-You're wrong! It's not like I don't want to look, but I thought that it isn't okay to look.....」

「Raijin-sama, you're so cute aren't you ~。 It's my first time to look at it this firmly so it's also making my heart throb too ~ 」

「Thro-throbbing aside.....in the end, this is just for the sake of future reference right.....? 」

Even though Aretta-san says that, she's still looking at me with the long slits of her eyes. Please don't look at me like that, I'm just a 0 yr old kid.

「Hmmm.....Hiroto-chan, most likely he has this impression of having a splendid growth in the future.....」

「P-please don't look at him so intently like that! Hiroto-chan is feeling embarrassed right now surely.」

Aretta-san took me away from Marle-san. It exists even though the size is modest.....but by observing it closely, there is also a different flavor existing here. Well, I'm not a Breast Sommelier, what the hell am I thinking of.....

「I-it's not like that～ Aretta-chan. I'm not looking you know? Yep, I didn't look at all.....Kyaaaa!!」

「Ma-Marle.....!？」

Bashaaan ! ! ! (TLN: Sound effect)

Marle-san pushed Aretta-san while trembling and her foot slipped with a Tsuru sound. Fillianess-san's voice also became empty, her balance is destroyed and her face got thrust to the water spout.

The sight of Marle-san's bottom was view-able to me from the bathtub, which I gave the fruit like description. That is a fruit, I can still be forgiven since it's a fruit. This will end without her feeling that she can't be a bride anymore....!

「Get a hold of yourself Marle-san !! Sigh, only at such a time as this are you.....heavy....」

「bokobokobokoboko」 (TLN: Burbling sounds)

「Aretta.....This is the last resort measure, Strike her bottom. So that her consciousness would come back.」

「I-I understand....Please excuse me! Sei !! 」 (TLN: sound effect that is being said)

PASHIIN

With the yell of Aretta-san with good power, a pleasant feeling could be felt in the bathroom with the good sound that resounded inside. The white peach shook with the sound of Bikun!, and Margit-san woke up.

「Puhaaaaa! W-what are you doing so suddenly Aretta-chan!」

「That's what I should be saying though.....Haah. Hiroto-chan looks shocked too.」

I'm not shocked though, the [Happening] skill that activates with 10 points is comparatively awful.....Marle-san, she's really lucky to be well and safe up till now.

「Mou~, Since I can't leave it up to Marle-san, I'll just step in the bath previously. Is this temperature already good.....」

Aretta-san carefully soaked me in the hot water. There's no problem because it's lukewarm.....hmm, it feels so good. Though it's alright to just wipe me with a cloth which has been soaked wet in the lukewarm water, as I thought, it's still best to just gradually soak in the lukewarm water. My senseless body got hot and is quickly flustered.

- 《Fillianess》' 「Blessed cloth armor」 equipment has been released。

【「.....D-Danger. This is very dangerous....!」】

In the beginning wherein the bathroom was enshrouded by the steam, the girl who has a golden thread like hair and snow white skin was standing there.

My brain couldn't settle down either while it repeatedly says 【"DANGER"】. The extremely ripened fruit that developed her breasts have, a very artistic well-proportioned form. So as to show her disposition, it's popping, completely disregards gravity.

And her beautiful long legs which are as if god made it with a beautifully fine strokes of his pen. Though I wanted to say that I wanted to apply more muscles in it, I cannot help myself from wanting it to stay the same right now as she gets stronger. Of course when the years pass, the Fillianess' figure that I know would be gone, though the way things are going right now cannot stay as it is for all eternity.

【「Explaining a 14 year old like its fine arts is, being a lolicon? ...isn't it?.....」】

Beacause I'm a 0 year old baby right now, a 14 year old is considered older.....This is unpalatable, I'm getting confused. Even only at the sight of Marle-san and Aretta-san, I would already be dazed.

「Since I'm tired too, then I'd like to join Hiroto in getting soaked in the bathtub.」

—and thus, the first time chance has arrived. I who had a praying like feeling, waited for the arrival of the log to flow in me.

◆Log◆

・「Charm」 has been invoked ! 《Fillianess》 succeeded in resisting.

【「Ku.....W-well, that's right. There is no reason for it to go well in the first shot 」】

The verdict of charm is carried out every 15 minutes. While she's in the bath, even if it's despicable, I'll be sure to have another chance.

Fillianess doesn't know the conflict happening in my heart, while she took the bucket and drew some hot water from the tub, and then she knelt on one knee to the floor and bathed in the water from the shoulder. The now wet golden hair clings to her body, and alike to Marle-san a while ago, the core of the fresh fruits is hidden under a cover.

「There's also soap too. Even when it's a high class inn, there's no such thing like this in those places.....This is very welcoming.」

Even in the appearance of her washing her body with the soap, it looks like she is clad in some kind of radiance from somewhere. She is so beautiful no matter she does.....

Fillianess-san finishes washing her body while I was thinking, took some hot water again and proceeds to shower herself with it while the foam is washed with the water. Thus the slightly hidden parts of her wet body is turned up to my direction. Because I'm a baby, it seems to have been thought that concealing it too much was also strange.

「Fuu.....The hot water has been used up so luxuriously, however though I'll permit it because Marle boiled it, The hot water overflowed considerably when she was thrust there a little while ago.」

「It's alright you know～ because hot water can be added if this is twisted here.」

「The hot water can be gotten here huh.....now it's possible for Hiroto-chan to enjoy soaking in the bath.」

【「W-well.....I'm already feeling dizzy though.....」】

My surroundings have become slightly going round and round.....it wouldn't be good if this goes on any longer. However, Aretta-san who is carrying me is also the same.

「Ah.....A-Aretta-chan! Don't do it, I think that's too early for Aretta-chan!」

「D-Do you know what you are trying to do.....Aretta, how about you shower yourself with the water for the time being, your face is too red right now.」

The two girls started to stop the confused Aretta-san. The Aretta-san who I saw as a cool person, which I saw momentarily with my eyes which was moistening, I become more dazed so I couldn't see her face too much though.

However, she's still in my presence, though only a gentle hill and a faint color can be seen with my eyes right now. It's a Flat chest..... I was using a roundabout expression up to now but even though she's the oldest among everyone here, she's still flat chested. However it is still possible to breastfeed.

「Aaaah, wait for a moment, I said wait for a moment.....medekkkkkkkkuuuuuuu!」 (TLN: wtf I dun understand. EN: It's a moan definitely after putting Hiroto's mouth on the cherry blossom tree at the end of the cliff.)

「Wah, don't suddenly raise such an improper voice Marle-san, wait, don't act rashly Aretta-chan.....Ah...?!」

「.....If it's for Hiroto-chan, I'll.....give myself to him」

◆Log◆

- You are now receiving 《Aretta》's 「Breastfeed」 skill。 Your Hp has been replenished。

- You have recovered from your dazed state。

- You have obtained the skill 「Medical Soldier 」 !

- 《Aretta》 is now feeling like this is her fate。

【「Sh-she's acting rashly too much...however...I have obtained it, the skill Medical Soldier 【(Medic)】.....!」】

「.....I didn't think I would try it up to this. The duty for this day has been outside my assumption for too much.」

「Y-You fool! What have you done to another woman's baby, to such a place yo-you-you-you.....」

The words of what Aretta-san did couldn't go out from Fillianess-san's mouth. Marle-san who was inside the bathtub was observing us with moist eyes.

「About Aretta-chan.....though she's older, she too weeny is what I've thought. I'll be revoking that now.」

「Ma-Marle-san....You're scaring me, please extend the ending of a word as always.」

Since I've recovered from the abnormal state, I can now clearly see Marle-san's appearance.

【「....Wa, She's not wearing anything right....」】

The circumstance of a 16 year old to not have a forte, is having a nature of not obtaining anything for the rest of their life. Nah, after that, the wishes is placed in 3 years.....well, it's a big assistance. For a 0 year old me, I have no right to interfere in the growth of an older nee-san.

「Thus when one looks at Hiroto closely, I now understand the feeling of the time when I'd become a mother or in other words.....」

◆Dialogue◆

・《Margit》is trying to use the active skill [breast feed] on you。Will you permit her to use it on you? YES／NO

「You don't have to hold back you know ～.....? I'm sure that it would come out more than Aretta-chan's.....」

「Th-that can't be true.....Hiroto's stomach is already full, it's already been decided so.」

「Y-you two....Have you two been possessed by craziness? I'm sure it's true, the two of you are now getting crazy.....」

Though Fillianess-san is covering her face as usual, the part where her eyes are not concealed. L-let's make sure now....that I'll inherit her [Physique] or her [Chivalry] at this moment.

「I'm not sure if you can see these muscles but because there's no muscles in this part so.....」

◆Log◆

- You are now receiving 《Margit》's 「Breastfeed」 skill。 Your Hp has been replenished。

- You have obtained the skill 「Chivalry 」 !

- 《Margit》 has become happy。

「....Having to feel this good huh～。 Ehehehehe....Hiroto-chan.....」

「Mou, it's already fine now so switch with me already! Since I'm a medical soldier, these kind of things is my forte!」

「W-Wait....He's considerably become very red.....at the time when I soaked in the tub, there is no need to gone up any longer」

Though Fillianess says so, I would always fully recover as long as I am drinking breast milk.

And now again, I'll have to wait before the [Charm] skill can be used again. Since its 15 minutes then it should be activating any second now.

【「The peculiar skill of the 2 knights is now complete.....however, the most desired skill is.....!」】

「Hmmm.....You're very quiet now. Are you really alright? Though your complexion seems to be alright.」

Fillianess-san who is carrying me, has soaked in the tub with me. At that moment, the log of fate has flowed in.

【「Please....!!!」】

◆Log◆

・「Charm」 has been invoked ! 《Fillianess》 succeeded in resisting.

【「Uwaaaaahhhhh!!!!」】

I instinctively shouted in my head. How hard is her guard really.....It's still an impregnable fortress even without her Circlet.

「.....He seems to be somewhat displeased about something. What should I do, to make you become cute again?」

「.....manma」 (TLN: Baby talk)

「Isn't it lonely if your mother isn't here? it's alright, I'm mommy～」

「Marle-san, as one would expect that is....even a baby can see the distinction you know.」

At that time when I said [manma], I want to suckle on Fillianess-san is what I really wanted to say though.

「Mu....the water is a little hot now. I'm a little worried a little for Hiroto so let's just soak for a little and get out after.」

「Okay.」

「I understand.」

And thus my battle has ended. However, after the next morning arrives, while Fillianess-san's circlet is out of the way, it is sure to spend some time in this house.....

【「It's not yet over.....I have not yet given up. If I give up right now then I'll surely regret it....!」】

To the female knights who I have soaked together in the bath, I am now burning with fighting spirit. Fillianess-san looks at me with her reddish brown eyes and she slanted her head.

Chapter 9: Demon Sword Calamity

After going up from the bathtub, I was placed inside the cradle in the living room while Remillia mama rocked the cradle gently.

◆Log◆

- 《Remillia》has sung the 「Babysitting song」 ! You've become drowsy.
 - You felt that your eyelids have become heavy.
- (N-, not good.....I'm getting sleepy.....)

「Sleep a lot, and grow up faster alright, Hiroto. That would be a mother's best happiness」

「.....Uh, uu」

「Fufu, It seems like you can understand what I'm saying a little bit huh.」

I'm giving it my all to look at Remillia mama's face through this time, and at last, I could now see her face so that she won't get lonely.

However, my pure mind is getting embarrassed.....well she's still 18 years of age, which is my Mother. Her hair which was always tied up is now unfastened, which now gives her a little bit of a mature look. Though her looks is that of a westerner, she isn't too much chiseled either, but a beautiful woman with a soft impression. Her eyes are big, while her eyelashes are surprisingly long.

Now when I look with these eyes of mine compared to that time when I was given birth, a lot of information being given to me has increased. Since this isn't an effect from the skill raising, I now know that I'm growing up.

(.....Something is changing whenever I'm sleeping or waking up. Is that what it means to be a baby.....?)

I couldn't think any longer, so I dreamily shut my eyes. Remillia mama smiled, as she patted my head.

◆Log◆

- 《Ricardo》opened the door.
- Your drowsiness has been lessened.

「I'm back, Remillia, Hiroto. Oh, were you putting him to sleep? Sorry, for being so loud and all.」

Because of the noise father made when coming back, I ended up not falling asleep. Though I'm still feeling sleepy, I can't let myself to fall asleep today.

(Fillianess was gone when I woke up.....is what I would say, you're too late. That was dangerous)

I moved inside the cradle which is like squirming. And when I reached out my hands, Remillia-san with a wry smile, clasped my small hands.

「You too darling, you'd be sad if you come home and see Hiroto sleeping. This child of ours seems to understand too.」

「Da, da」

「Hahaha, you're right. Hiroto boy is so great huh, waiting for Papa to come back huh.」

Before the large and rough hands touch me, Remillia-san passed a towel to Ricardo-san, and he wiped his hands with it. Though it seems like he didn't do some hunting today, there might be occasions that some animal or monster's blood would be attached to his hands. Since my resistance power is still weak, these two are careful in touching me.

「Oh, he's gradually turning his face to my direction lately. Since you've been meeting a lot of people, have you become accustomed to it gradually?」

「He's been looking at me too. He's been calling me 『Ma-nma』」 (TLN: Since babies still don't have too much control with their tongues, they use letter N in almost all their words. I know since my sisters are making me take care of their kids)

「WHAT!?!.....h-how about me? Is he still not calling me anything?」

Even in my previous life, I called my mom first who was always with me. To have come to understand dad, when was that....., and my memories wandered a little bit.

「.....manma」

「Hmm, you can't say anything other than that huh.....however since you can already say that, only one more step and..... This is Papa, I'm Papa~」

「Isn't it too hard to say Papa? Hiroto, this person is your Papa. Ricardo is what he's called.」

「.....i.....au.....o」 (TLN: iauo = wikaudo = Rikardo/ missing letters~)

「OOOHH !wait, don't teach him my name, I want him to call me Papa.」

I could only pronounce vowels, 「Ma」 is the only word I can say with that limit. A little bit longer though.....4 months have only passed since I was born, so isn't this the stage where I should be learning to sit.

「.....lauo」

「OOOOOH ! Umu, this child might be a genius, Remillia」

「Sigh...What are you saying, darling.....though that's too much of an exaggeration, he might be able to talk soon. When I hear about it from the surrounding stories, in about 3 or more months, he would start to hang on to stuff it seems.」

「Hiroto might already be too fast for a moment. Since, he's my son and all」

Even though I'm still a baby, my parents are already feeling proud of me. That trust of theirs to me, I don't want to ever lose that.

I reached out for the edge of the cradle, and firmly held onto it. And while I was practicing on moving, Ricardo lifted me up in his arms with the sound of [Hyo!~].

「Though I still wish for you to stay as a baby for a little more. When wearing a diaper becomes unnecessary at an early time, If we bring you to the church then you'd be treated as the 『Son of the Goddess』」

「That's right.....He's not even crying when he needs anything but now he's just clapping his hands」

Though my vocal chords are getting forged when I cry, my mana would decrease with it. Because of that, it came to a point where I use a various of signals to catch Remillia mama's attention. If she comes to me then, she would roughly draw her real intention.

Though it seems I can get along well with Father and Mother, the problem is, the time that I'll be needed to talk to the dwellers of this town. Though there are some children who are of the same age as me, if I can't manage to befriend them then, that would give my parents some worries.

However in the case of Eternal・Magia, my Communication hindrance can be compensated with great effort. Though I feel that to positively enter into a circle of people is a too high wall for me, but if it's only 10 friends.....no, 5 friends. If it's 3 friends, then I might be able to do it. I want to manage to do that.

Though Mother's injury has completely healed already, when he heard about the event during the day, Ricardo papa quietly turned his anger towards Anton and his gang, while telling mother to be careful and take a rest too.

「Then, I shall be excusing myself.....I'll be taking a rest right now so, if something happens then call for me. Darling, shall I take Hiroto with me?」

「I'm fine, his eyes seem to be still bright, So I'll just let him play a little more. Well then, good night.....Remillia.」

Ricardo papa put his hand to Remillia mama's head with a "pon" sound. Though there's a word called patting for that, maybe this is why mama came to like papa, is what I thought from this exchange.

After mother went to the bedroom, Fillianess and her group went out from the living room. They're now making use of the visitor's quarters right now, while they changed to the clothes that Remillia mama prepared. The appearance of the 3 knights who are now wearing cotton shirts and skirts, had a very good image change to village girls.

「If only we have arrived a little bit earlier, noblewoman-sama wouldn't have taken any injury.....we ask of your forgiveness.」

「No, you're wrong. It's very good that Sage knight-sama has arrived. If I was the one at the scene, it would have been impossible for me to use「Holding back」」

Even if Ricardo papa was laughing, once he understood why Remilla mama got angry, there would be more reasons to not forgive Anton and his gang. Well, the guards have already arrested them and have taken them to the capital once they found them guilty, which means that they aren't in town right now but.....

「That's right～. If I had used a mace to the fight a while ago, then it wouldn't end with just injuries for them ～」

「Please remember to use the way of holding back, Marle-san.....」

Is it because you would acquire the passive skill [Holding back] with the skill 「Chivalry」with at least 50 points? To at least leave 1 HP for the enemy, is in fact very useful, but the difficulty of acquiring it is very high. It seems like Fillianess-san has already acquired it with her 【Holy】 Sword Skill.

「And.....Ricardo-dono, I've come here to Mizzere, not for other matters but.....」

「Yeah, I understand. However, I have not heard about these two knights accompanying you. Well, for Margit-san's case, if I would be over my head then she would be stronger than me」

「In terms of physical strength, Marle-san is the best among the knights. I even wouldn't be able to win against her with strength alone」

Of one of the companions of Fillianess-san, it became a topic in the game that the character had an abnormal strength when fighting against her. It's because of that that the Knights have gotten an image of being a strong group but it seems like it isn't so. Fillianess-san is the strongest in the whole kingdom while, Marle-san is the second.....in which she is only outstanding in the terms of strength. Her physique skill level is also low , but if her Club skill rises to level 20, she would be able to deal terrific damage with the skill「Double Impact」.

「Since this is a story that we shouldn't hear.....W-we understand. Were sorry, then with the introductions being finished....～」

「Then Fillianess-sama, let us meet up later on. We shall now be returning to our room.」

After Marle-sana and Aretta-san looked at me and smiled, they went out of the room. Fillianess-san, came to our house for an important discussion.....and by chance, I came to a situation where I am allowed to listen to they're discussion.

「.....We today, by the order of the highest minister, was given the role of 『Defenders』 to observe too, and I have come here with two knights accompanying me」

「I see.....To you who is the strongest of the kingdom, I've felt that your numbers were too little to come to this country side town. Is it because other than you there are no one who fits the job, is what they thought huh?」

To Ricardo-san who always uses words that seem a little bit unreliable, Fillianess-san seems to give respect to his words. With the tension that got heavy, my hands began to sweat.

(.....『Defenders』, what would they be protecting.....who would be that person?)

「That sword, Is it still safe, enshrined inside without being pulled out?」

「It is undoubtedly safe. As long as I'm alive like this, I have decided to defend it」

Ricardo papa answers without hesitation. The words 『As long as I'm alive』, I have felt it a little bit, the feeling of seriousness.

To it being necessary to offer one's life, A dangerous thing.....『That sword』. Is that, what Ricardo papa is protecting?

「.....Sorry. Since you are now living here peacefully with you family, that sword is now unsuitable for you to protect. I shall now receive it, so that I'll take it away as far as possible, and I'll seal it」

「So the King and the prime minister, wants that sword to be in the range of their eyes.....since Mizerre is only 3 day distant travel from the capital, they'd be relived for a little bit I guess. Fillianess-sama, in the interval of your task in the capital, you can also go here to show yourself just like this.」

「That is.....though it might be so. What if the time came, that Remillia-dono, Hiroto, and the people of these town gets involved in an evil problem is what I think you should be thinking about.....」

Fillianess-san's facial expression looked dark. The one who is called the strongest sage knight of the kingdom, who is 14 years of age.....even in the case of it being her duty, she wouldn't be able to give a clear explanation about it all.

And that girl is also worried about me and mother. Looking at a Fillianess-san like that, Ricardo papa laughed with a whiff.

「You're still young. Though I'm not saying for you to get older like me, I realized the limits of my strength, and I threw away the knight's path and spent my whole life to being a 『Defender』. It's just that simple. Remillia also understands it too, of how much the danger of 『That』 is. Yet still her father, gave us this place that were now living in」

「.....Is.....that so. I at the time when you all went out from the capital, I piled up my training to become a Sage Knight. And that me thoughtlessly couldn't speak against your resolution at that timeis what I thought」

「I who only knows how to swing an axe, wouldn't be entranced on using that sword. Even with an odd knight like me, there was still a role that I was able to play」

「.....Even if I also obtain that sword, I wouldn't be affected by its entrancement. Even if it's the same as a sword, that sword is still different from the ones I use. In that case, the role of the Defender, I should.....」

To Fillianess-san's words, father silently controlled it. Stop talking, is what his face is saying.

「A Sage Knight has the duties of being a sage knight. If I would be given time, then I would take that sword, and get away from the place where my wife and child are. However, right now.....at least, until Hiroto grows a little more.....」

「.....I understand. However, I only have a single thing to ask of you.....To the kingdom, to the great minister-sama, I do not want to press everything against you alone. If it's the matter of 『That Sword』 awakening someday, then I shall obstruct it with my best. You shouldn't take it upon yourself alone, please ask for our assistance too」

「Yeah, I would be troubled if I do that. That is, because it's beyond a person's control. That is why, no one will ever think that it's in a backwater country like this.....If I say in addition, they wouldn't think of me as a knight, but just an ordinary lumberjack」

「.....To you who has reached the peak of being a sub knight leader, what are you even saying of yourself. On that moment when you discovered 『that sword』, no one desired to be its 『Defender』, and that you voluntarily nominated to be it is what I've heard. With the honor of being a knight, you threw everything away.」

My father might have been a former knight. To such a guess of mine, reality has exceeded my expectation.

Ricardo papa was the sub knight leader.....while still being so young like this. And, he threw away his position, and moved to this town.

It wasn't 「fleeing from the capital」. Father with his own will, tried to play something of an important role.....

「Someone has to do it. That is why, positions or statuses shouldn't be related to it.」

「.....Your resolution, I have firmly received it. All that's left is to confirm the safety of the sword, and after staying for a while in Mizerre, We shall return to the capital」

「This town is a good place, please have a look at it as long as you want. However I don't recommend on going to the interior of the mines alone. In the interior are lava, while the exterior has a den of strong monsters」 (TL: And 2nd best girl is in there nyohohohohoho ED: Don't spoil that much!)

「I understand. If I become too much sweaty, at the time when I play with Hiroto, His nose might get wary from the smell」

「Hahahaha.....The sweat of a woman is different from the sweat of a boorish man like me. Hiroto has succeeded my blood, that's why he'll grow up to be a man who wouldn't worry about it. Isn't that right Hiroto, you wouldn't mind a sweaty sage knight right?」

「.....da, da」

Father, you're being too frank. I don't know what I would react at that time too.

Well however, since pheromone is also included in the sweat, surely in the case of sage knight-samawait, that's what you call a HENTAI.

「.....Somehow, I understand that Hiroto is the son of Ricardo-dono」

「Compared to me, this kid has more promise than me. Even though he's still 0 year old, how about you place a mark on him right now? The Sage knight's 『Prohibition』 is, up to the age of 29 if I remember correctly. At exactly that age.....」

「Wha, what are you saying.....about my prohibition, Hiroto has nothing to do with it. Not to mention but I, have already decided to lay my life for the Goddess throughout my life. I would not have time took aside.....」

「Having a household is good to you know. This is not preaching, but what I'm truly thinking about. While I'm protecting 『That』, my Ax skills would have gradually rusted. With Remillia, and thanks to Hiroto, it ended without becoming it so」

When father held and raised me, he gently patted my back.

I began to feel like crying. I don't know what it is my father is shouldering, and without knowing the feelings of Mother who has accepted Father's resolution, I just spent my time peacefully, requesting of my mother's milk.

I want to get to know more of Father and Mother. At the moment when I really want to protect them, I might end with me not being able to do anything.

「Now then.....Shall we ascertain the safety of the sword? I'll guide you to its place」

「Is it in a place where it can be seen now?」

「Yeah. It's not like you can't see it because of the trees.....but compared to just saying it, How about just seeing it for yourself. Hiroto boy, wait for me here ok」

Father tried to unload me. However I hurriedly cling to him and didn't part from him.

「Well this is bad..... Though it's alright if I take you with me.....Your Father has something important to do」

「.....pa, papa」

「What.....D-, do you really want to go that much.....but that thing, to let a baby see it is.....」

I'm now trying with all my effort to persuade my Father. If it's a thing that a baby can do, I'll do it even if it's anything.

Even if it's not talking but just doing an action, it would still take a considerable amount of energy. However, I won't such a thing right now.

「.....Fillianess-sama, may I also take my son? I'll still show you 『That Sword』 while carrying him」

「mu.....Well, oh dear, a baby can't have a sword, and he might not be entranced by it.....I understand, I'll take the responsibility and will be holding Hiroto」

I have been handed over to Fillianess-san by Father. This is the fragrance of soap huh.....and to that, as to what Father has said, Fillianess-san had an overwhelmingly good smell.

◆Log◆

・「Charm」 has been invoked ! 《Fillianess》 succeeded in resisting.

It has already been invoked 3 times, when talking about Fillianess-san's defense.....being a sage knight, did it have a hidden parameter of them having a strong resistance from getting charmed.

「Haha, he became more obedient compared to his time with me.....did you get embarrassed, Hiroto boy?」

「He's a baby, though I don't think he can understand anything.....this baby is what can I call it, I'm not just a regular baby is what I think」

「Yes, you've said it well. That is why this child will surely become an important person.」

When Father refreshingly laughed, he faced to the direction of the basement. Was 『That Sword』 in there.....I who is being embraced by Fillianess-san also, went down there while being strained.

This is my first time entering the basement of our house. Though there were no rooms, after the stairs that we got off, a wide passage extended where 2 people in a row can pass. The atmosphere wasn't putrid as what I thought it would, since there's air that flows from somewhere.....There was also sounds of running water.

「This place.....where is it connected to?」

「The deep underground of the church in Mizerre. It is submerged inside the pond of consecrated water which has received blessing in the church, so that I tried to weaken that sword's power even for a little bit.....oh dear, it's just a consolation if I say so」

Ricardo papa said that while smiling wryly. There were also passages and stairs alternatively, we went down bit by bit to the deep underground.....and then.

「.....Is this, the place where that sword is enshrined. It's like so to speak, an altar of the Goddess」

「I also thought so at first.....inside there is where the thing called the demon blade is sealed, it's indescribably like a sarcastic story」

(Demon blade.....N-, now way..... !)

『That Sword』 If one would say 『That』 then I couldn't pin out what it is though, I couldn't help but react to the word 『Demon Blade』.

In the weapons that existed in Eternal•Magia , Not one even for 1 player character could ever get a hold of it, 『The strongest weapon with just its existence』. One of those includes the 『Demon Blade』.

Sword, Spear, Rapier, Axe, Bludgeon, Katana, Bow, Staff. 『Demon』 was crowned to its name for each of all those eight weapons. Literally, they were the weapons that the Demon King had, and though various people say that those were the weapons needed to defeat the Demon king, A part of those weapons were only seen to be enshrined, which the items were not able to be obtained.

Though I have seen the 『Demon spear disaster』, I have never seen the Demon Blade. Is it really that Demon blade?.....Is it really inside the town connected to my house in the underground part of the church.....?

「Ricardo-dono, where is the Demon blade? I can't seem to find it anywhere.....」

「If you use this device over here.....Fillianess-dono, please take a look. The pond where the consecrated water is collected into」

When Father operated the device from the corner of the room where he was, the consecrated water dripped downward from the container which was like a polished up marble that has divided into two, while the water dropped from above at a dash. Though dungeons would open up just like this, this was the first time I've seen it after I have been reincarnated.

After the container became empty from losing the consecrated water, the thing that appeared was.....it was sank into the water, a long sword hidden inside its black sheath.

「This is.....the most evil Demon blade, Calamity.....?」

「This is one of the weapons that the Devils have received from the Demon king for the purpose of destroying the world. It has been taken away by the Hero who subjugated the Demon king.....In the domain of the kingdom, to the place where the hero was assumed to live in, only this sword has been left. Good grief, what was that hero thinking when he decided to just throw this sword away」

When Ricardo took the Demon Blade, he displayed it to Fillianess-san. Though I could only get simple information since I don't have the appraise skill, the information of the sword was confirmed by the log.

◆Item◆

Name : ?Demon Blade Calamity

Type : Long sword

Rarity : God

Offensive power : 1

- Not yet appraised.

- It is cursed.

- It is sealed.

(Demon Blade.....Rarity, Myth Class(God). It was really here..... !)

In the arms of Fillianess-san, I was staring at the Demon Blade. Though the sword was giving off an ominous feeling, it was sealed, so it couldn't display its prowess. However if a person who can equip that sword has it, they would be cursed and it would be equipped without their permission, and they'll fall into a state of 『Possessed』.

「Good grief.....I'm trembling from this famous sword. But, this is not just an ordinary sword. If one would believe the legends, then this is a calamity itself」

「.....It's good that I have confirmed that it's safe. In the future after this, it will be necessary to come here for the confirmation at intervals of several months. The ones who desire this, whether it be humans or monsters are a lot」

Fillianess-san didn't touch the sword. Even though she doesn't seem to be a woman who can only equip rapiers, nevertheless, she is still a sage knight who would hesitate to touch it mischievously.

Father once again places the sword to its former place, the container returns to its origin, where it is filled with consecrated water. After seeing that, Fillianess-san's nervousness finally softened a little.

「I'm not saying that this place is safe at all either. I'll look for an opportunity, leave the town, and go out to travel is my plan.」

「.....As long as the power of the Demon blade will be controlled. Or, if it's able to destroy it.....」

Then Father would be liberated from the Defender role of the Demon Blade. However, if that was possible, then it would have been done earlier.

「It is impossible to destroy it, and if it is shot to the ground, then somebody will be able to obtain it someday. That is why, it only needs to be defended」

「.....I'm sorry. In the future after this, I'll be earnestly.....」

Fillianess-san couldn't finish her words. Father just laughed and went out of the basement.

After leaving the two of us, Fillianess-san embraced me, and patted my back.

「.....The Father of Hiroto is a man of great stature, we should remember that.」

When she said so, we have left the basement too. I didn't even need to say it since I already understand my Father's greatness.

However, that's not only it.

Do not allow anyone to misuse the Demon blade, it is necessary to be done. If Father went to travel alone with that sword.....only to that, like the hero who threw away the sword, he would likely become the same thing like him.

(Father is happy just being with Remilla mama. This life that we're living right now, I will never let anything destroy it..... !)

My desire of coming to be able to walk increases.

I'll manage to control the Demon Blade Calamity, or destroy it.....I promised myself to accomplish that at any cost.

We went out of the basement and returned to the living room. It's slowly night time already and it's time for sleeping.

「Then I'll be taking Hiroto now.You're unskilled in putting him to sleep right.」

「That's true.Since I seem to scare him a little,he seems to be strained in a way.....」

Fillianess started to pass me to father.at that point I would remain in my condition if I let things happen as it is, a strong urge that says that it's not good to let the situation go as it is drove me.

(.....this is not good. As it is right now, the only way of showing what I'm thinking while not saying anything is.....!)

I hardly ever looked at her eyes up to now and I just waited for my charm skill to be invoked. I'm only swinging from joy to sorrow just by looking at the log, as I hoped only to strengthen more——but, it's different now.

(Since it's possible with other people.....「Charm」 isn't the only useful skill that the Negotiation skill has.....!)

I who was still at the arm of Fillianess, have invoked the skill 「Choices」. With the sense of losing mana, the dialog was displayed.

◆Choices Dialog◆

1 : 「Persuade」 《Fillianess》

2 : 「Request」 onto 《Ricardo》

3 : 「Request」 onto 《Fillianess》

(Is these the choices of fate.....yes.....I did have 「Persuade」 and 「Request」!)

Those are not a passive skill, but a needed to be activated active skill. Even with me who couldn't speak, I could still use 「Persuade」 and 「Request」, is what the choices are pointing out.

Since these choices only display effective actions, all the choices in there would give some effects. However the effects are different with each choice.....I don't know if it will result in the thing that I hope for, but still, the possibility isn't zero.

(.....I got no choice but to do this.....!)

◆Log◆

•You have used 「Request」 onto 《Fillianess》.

「aa,uu」

「Hmm.....wh-what's wrong? For you to cling onto me that firmly.....」

I-,it's useless.....when I'm being looked at with a face full of doubt, the trauma of my previous life resurfaces.

I don't know what would be good to do. However, I still want to be together with Fillianess.

Even if my feelings are that I just want her skill, I still want the thing I want. That is why, I just need to ask earnestly.....I can do nothing but 「Request」 unto her.....!

(Look at her eyes.....while properly looking at her eyes, ask a request onto her.....!)

「.....babu」

「Wh-.....wh-what's wrong? for you to be looking at me with sparkles on your eyes.....even a little while ago, this didn't happen though.....」

「Hahaha, I see I see. Hiroto isn't cutting corners anymore huh」

「Th,that is.....what do you mean by that? I would like for you to teach it to me」

「This son of ours, already understands the beauty of women at this age. Right, Hiroto boy?」

「T-to say that I'm beautiful.....is that, really what he is thinking.....?」

It's not like I can persuade women even if I'm a 0 year old baby, but it was possible for me to ask a 「Request」 from them. I want something, is what my petition would look like, and they would understand me from their instinct.

I didn't turn my eyes away from Fillianess. My heart is beating with a baku baku sound which seemed like it could explode at any moment.....however, I won't run away.

In understanding the resolution of my father, if I still remain with this passive attitude, I'll become a nuisance to papa.

「Since your mother will burn with jealousy, this father of yours will pretend that he has no knowledge of this. Hiroto boy, get spoiled as much as you can with this onee-chan here okay」

「ah.....Ri,Ricardo-dono.....!」

(As expected of father.....!)

Papa entrusted me to Fillianess and faced the bedroom. I who was left, stared at Fillianess-san with a clinging desire.

「u.....uu.....don't look at me with your eyes like that.....it's painful for my chest」

「.....abu」

「ku.....I-I understand already, We just have to sleep together alright! Because my sleeping posture is untidy, I don't care if something strange happens to you okay!」

KARAN KURUN, which the bell of blessing resounded.

(I did it.....I DID IT. I can now sleep together with Fillianess.....!)

Surely in case of this.....No, I'll restrain my skill for now.

I understand that I would be spoiled by people since I was a baby. But for a communication disordered person like me, I was able to convey my feelings to another person for the first time.

The success rate of 「Request」 would lower extremely if one would not pay the price. However, the system of the game is not the only thing affected in this world.....because there were different kinds of emotions for each person in this world.

「.....When Marle and Aretta gets up, what should I explain this.....ah.....」

Fillianess looked at me like she noticed something. Thus, she looked down on her own chest.

「Hi,Hiroto.....are you hungry?.....I'd be bothered if you are but.....wh,what should I do.....?」

(I-.....it-IT'S HERE.....IT FINALLY HAPPENED.....!)

Y-,Yes,I am hungry.If you leave me to this hunger that I haven't experienced yet, the way things are going right now, I won't be able to sleep peacefully.....!

◆Log◆

・「Charm」 has been invoked! 《Fillianess》 succeeded in resisting.

「.....N-no, it's nothing」

「Ba,Babu!」

「Wh-what is it.....I-,I didn't say anything! Please stop your dissatisfaction!」

Fillianess-san is seriously having a fight with a baby. Well it's true that my attitude of being dissatisfied is annoying, and maybe that's why she got angry.

However even if the charm didn't succeed, it seems like it was still possible to succeed.....however my mana is already 0 . I'm sleepy.....

(.....Regrettably.....)

「Hi.....Hi-Hiroto! What's wrong, are you sleepy!?!」

「.....su,su.....」

While hearing the voice of a surprised Fillianess, I lost consciousness. Why am I always this helpless.

I will only do what I must do. Seeing as the length of her stay isn't just 1 day, then there's no reason for me.....to give up.....

Gently, my consciousness resurfaced.

What could be the time right now.....the vicinity was still dark. While I was dozing off, I tried to confirm my current situation.

「.....Since I was entrusted with him.....I as well, am responsible.....」

A small voice muttered so. And there was the fragrance of soap. This.....is Fillianess-san's.....

Hm.....the log seemed to flow in my head. Under this situation.....what would the choices be.

◆Choice Dialog◆

▪《Fillianess》 is trying to use the active skill [breast feed] on you. Will you permit her to use it on you? YES／NO

(.....)

At that moment, my brain froze.

After that, a great wave of emotion overflowed within my body is what I understood.

(Uwwooooooooohhhhh!)

In here, is a room where three female knights are staying.....Fillianess-san lay beside me, with her bare chest exposed, which showed an abundant large chest.

In a room which only moonlight goes through, mysteriously the girl who had a pretty face, was shyly concealing that certain pale colored part of her with her hands modestly, while I am watched.

「.....while being in a hurry, since I shouted like that.....maybe that's why you're scared of me, so I'm sorry for that.....」

(Th-,That's not it though but.....i-is it really alright.....is it really alright.....?)

After I appealed that I was hungry, I worried about the fact of consuming all of my mana, but she seemed to manage it by breast feeding me to make me energetic again.....is what I think that happened.

How many have breast fed me without my charm even succeeding on them, but even though there were some like that but I thought that it would be impossible for Fillianess-san to also be like that.

Although this greatly shaped chest with a rich projection with it, in reality, is presented up to my presence.

「O-or is it.....is it not this but.....another thing like, or is it a different thing you'd like?.....As expected, is it better to ask Marle or Remillia-sama.....」

The deadline of the choices approaches. 10,9,8,7,6.....

(.....I have received your resolution. ITADAKIMASU.....!) (TLN: Itadakimasu = what japanese people say before eating)

When the last count became 5, I moved. Including my inhaling, I opened my mouth, The point of the symbol of the presented maternity, I held it in my mouth as naturally as possible with a bite, however I couldn't help but be greedy no matter what.

「wapu.....un,nku.....」

「mu.....mu,mumu.....Pl-please wait, To suddenly.....you're too rough..... AHN~.....!」

◆Log◆

▪ You are now receiving 《Fillianess》's 「Breast-feed」 skill. Your Hp has been replenished.

▪ You have a feeling that you are now able to acquire the 【Holy】 Sword Skill.

▪ 《Fillianess》 took a long breath.

「fu,fuuu.....i-is it over.....even with this body who I have dedicated to the Goddess, would it be permitted for me to give compassion onto this child.....」

To decide what an honorable Goddess would think.....what a sinful Knight you are.

But the greater sinful thing besides that is.....I was not able to obtain the skill.....!

◆Log◆

「munya munya.....Thunder god-sama~, you're noisy~guu guu」

「.....Hiroto-chan.....kuu.....」

She got surprised at Marle-san and Aretta-san's sleep talking and Fillianess-san's face reddened while she suppressed her voice.

I without a moment's delay stared at her face. If I become accustomed to her by a degree, after the passage of time from the first meeting, the shyness from strangers softens. Hikikomoris didn't have a chance to meet face to face with many different people. (TLN: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hikikomori>)

「.....I-I understand, I understand already so.....Don't look at me like that.....」

(This is the last time.....this will absolutely be the last time so, please work.....!)

With my praying like feelings, the opposite pair was presented to me, and I struck fast with a paku sound. While innocently drinking the sweet breast milk slightly, The log once again flowed——and.

◆Log◆

- You are now receiving 《Fillianess》's「Breast-feed」 skill. Your Hp has been replenished.
- You have obtained the skill 【Holy】 Sword!
- 《Fillaness》' face reddened.

「nh.....fu.....your making it look like it's tasty.....my milk is not very delicious」

(It's so delicious that tears seem to come out of my eyes.....finally.....I'VE FINALLY OBTAINED IT.....!)

Fillianess who had both high Maternity and mana, didn't look exhausted at all even if getting suckled. Even if she's just 14 years old.....

In the beginning though I gave a clear cut explanation of the maternity system was a game like thing, I can now do nothing but admit it already.

(This world is so wonderful.....It's so great that I played Eternal Magia.....)

「.....Did you settle down at last? Since it's impossible for me to sleep now, let's end it here」

Fillianess fixes her clothes on her chest and patted my cheeks. I was full already while having a satisfied feeling.

◆Log◆

▪「Charm」has been invoked! 《Fillianess》failed to resist and has entered in the state of Charmed.

「.....!？」

Biku, is the sound that was made from the trembling body of Fillianess. The color of her eyes in seeing me changed, and before my presence it changed.

◆Log◆

▪《Fillianess》gazes at you.

▪《Fillianess》became glad.

(.....really?)

「.....Even though I'm very sorry to Remillia-sama.....for this to be only for this day is regrettable. While we're staying here, can I sleep together with you again.....?」

Fillianess-san stared at me with feverish like eyes. Since I already gave up on what happens in between my sleeping and waking time, the understanding of my head cannot follow.

The charm which didn't succeed so much, has finally won. And thus, she is now lying beside me.....which means.....

「As of now, there is still some time before the daylight comes.....Hiroto.....」

Fillianess-san began to expose herself out from the clothes she just wore a while ago. While looking at that ,I remembered the name of my own Guild.

Stairway to Heaven. That exactly, is the spectacle that existed in my presence right now.

▪《Fillianess》 is trying to use the active skill [breast feed] on you. Will you permit her to use it on you? YES／NO

Chapter 10 ①: End of Infancy

——My body is made out of Breast milk. (ED: Fate reference I think)

「Ah.....Da-Darling, look! Hiroto learned how to grab on and stand!」

「Uwooooh.....this fellow is incredible! Hiroto, are you able to go here? Or is it too fast for you yet!？」

The development of me who grew up rapidly thanks to everyone's favor, I was able to get the knack of hanging on and standing in about five months.

When saying about the bad balance of a baby's body, the head is heavy and I become dizzy. But if I don't get accustomed to standing then it won't be possible for me to walk.....

「.....Manma」

「Wahaha.....Is that so, he's hungry and that's why he tried to go to his mother」

「Okay okay.....However Hiroto, Though I'll give you only 3 times a day, are you really alright. With the children from the other houses, for one day they would drink about 10 times though.....」

「He might be eating other things stealthily? Is what I would say, but that might be impossible since he doesn't have any teeth yet. Did his stomach become a thing where it would be full with just 3 times?」

In receiving the breast milk of Remillia mama, I felt sorry for a moment.

Five months at present from my birth, in the daily life that I'm spending now, a lot of other breast milk have filled me without mother's knowledge of it.

I as of now, how many skills have I collected—how many breast milk have I received. Even if one thinks of the frequency of suckling increases rapidly because it becomes more difficult to raise the skill by 1, it becomes too much when calculated roughly.

First person Remillia ▪ Sigrid Human 18 years old

Time of breast feeding start : Soon after giving birth

Breast feeding frequency: Three times a day, 30 days a month The first stage was 8 times a day 500 times in total

Relation: Mother

Acquired skill: Elegance 22

The first one is obviously mama. At the start of 46 hours of my life, I have received her breast milk. Since babies would get hungry soon, she would cuddle him when it frequently cries, and the repetition of giving him her breasts so he would become quiet.

Though mama was bewildered at first when breastfeeding, but when I acted like just a normal baby, she gradually go accustomed to it.

「Abu」

Mama is truly kind. She would still forgive me even if how many times have I left her....., though becoming defiant isn't good. Since I don't want to leave a skill halfway in its numerical value, I would repeatedly disappear and leave her.

Second person Sarasa・Roneia Half Elf 123 years old

Time of breast feeding start: 2 weeks after seeing him for the first time

Breast feeding frequency: 5 times a day, 20 days a month 450 in total

Relation: Mentally and Physically dedicated to you completely

Acquired skill: Magic Attainments 20 Pharmacist 20

I am really indebted to Sarasa-san. My mana increased to 240 since Magic attainments is at level 20, and I have also obtained Medical Herb Study skill with the Pharmacist skill, in which I've also remembered Potion Making. With this, I can now distinguish herbs and collect them to make potions by myself.

However, I've suckled her too much with 450 times. Even in saving for 5 times a day, when Sarasa-san comes to our home almost every day, I suckled on her while mother wasn't around.

「Recently, the tension on my chest has surprisingly become comfortable. Isn't this thanks to Hiroto-chan.....」

「Amu,nmu.....nn,nn.....」

I innocently receive Sarasa-san's suckling as much as possible, and I recover my life with her breast milk, so I keep on suckling on her even if I was already full.

Though there were no other ways to it, 「I'm really sorry towards my husband.....」 was a mutter that did not go out on the way. When making an excuse, in the case of the married couple, the husband is given the higher priority in the favorability system, and after that is even if how much it is high, 「It got along well」 would still be its category. It mentally and physically dedicates it unto you, can be an example of that. I'm aware that 100 is still bad even for an example, so I'm so very sorry.

「Someday, maybe Hiroto-chan will be taken away from me by Leona..... before it's too late, I'll cherish you a lot alright.....Ah.....D-don't, stop, to use your hand.....」

When the skill 「Milking」 is used on her, about half a glass of breast milk can be squeezed out from her. Since it's not good to collect too much, I would act without any ulterior motive in the end, would just give her a massage.

「Fuu.....at such a small time, to remember such things like these. You really are a naughty child aren't you.....」

It's your fault that I have awoken to this, is what I thought without letting it out of my mouth. The Charisma that got invoked to Sarasa-san, while charm was attached to her, and learning of the skills she held.....is what I remembered to it being the start of it all. Of course the skill I took first is the skill I have succeeded from Remillia mama which is 「Elegance」.

「.....Compared to Remillia-san, if you suckle on to me a lot more, then won't she suspect of me?」

「.....Babu?」

「Charisma」's effect is shown to when talking with another person like you're of the same stature as them, however the immoral sensation.....I pretended like I didn't understand anything, and I mysteriously couldn't look at Sarasa-san.

Time of breast feeding start: after 1 month

Breast feeding frequency: Twice a day 2 times a week in visiting 64 times in total

Relation: She feels her fate with you

Acquired skill: Physique 5

Fourth person Monica • Sting 18 years old

Time of breast feeding start: after 1 month

Breast feeding frequency: Thrice a day 2 times a week in visiting 100 times in total

Relation: Goodwill is held unto you.

Acquired skill: Hunter 10

Fifth Person Firone • Belmot 18 years old

Time of breast feeding start: after 1 month

Breast feeding frequency: Twice a day 2 times a week in visiting 60 times in total (She took a rest twice)

Relation: She feels her fate with you

Acquired skill: Physique 5

To Remillia-san's 3 friends too, I'm very indebted to them. Though I think that one would understand it slowly by now, but when the person who suckles keeps at it too much, then they would extend it still by the end of a day and will receive an unexpected frequency of suckling. However I have acquired experience now, with calculation to just only intake the minimum amount of breast milk to suckle, and I was able to adjust it so that I won't intake too much. What the hell is this technique.

Monica of the three has more frequencies since the hunter skill could only be taken from her. Until the skill can be activated with 10 points, it was necessary for me to suckle on to her more.....and with that, I feel like I'm already a vampire or something like that. If I was to pick which, I would be a [Breast milk sucker demon]. This is a very Hentai-like character.

「Since I'm really sorry towards Remillia, I tried to decrease the frequency of coming over to play.....Ahn!.....」

「He won't part from you no matter what right?.....What should we do, if I only do these kind of things then.....」

「M-,Mouu.....for you guys who tempted me to take part, it's already too late to say those things. Since Hiroto's stomach is empty then what we're doing isn't wrong isn't it.....?」

Though the three of them let me suckle to them in a sequential order while Remillia mama wasn't there, and the spectacle at that time, makes me think that it's already ok for me to die isn't it was my situation at that time. The young maidens have surrounded my cradle while waiting for their turn in order.

About the favorability's rising by the pretext of taking skills, I have already closed my eyes to this matter. I think that it's not very good that the favorability rises while suckling. However it is maybe the fault of 「Charm」 being invoked, but I'm only helpless to this matter.

The matter of taking up various skills also is a good part where Negotiation technique can be usefully used. Since the more possible actions increases, the more number of materials that can be used in negotiating increases.

「I-I want to do it again.....? Hiroto-chan, me too.....」

「What are you saying Tanya, since babies need nourishment for them to grow up, we should give him a lot as much as possible. Hiroto-chan, if it's me then I can do it one more time.....」

「.....Firone, Isn't it better to keep it at a medium? Won't you be having a formal marriage interview soon?」

「Uuuu.....P-please don't tell me that right now. Since the formal marriage interview is an arrangement by father then it doesn't necessarily mean that I'm absolutely getting married.....」

Though I thought that the industry becomes deeper as fast as it goes, but it seems like the mana of these 3 girls is getting low, I moderately adjusted my suckling. I'll end Firone's turn today. Such a gamer like idea of valuing efficiency.

「To only want Monica that much.....Don't tell me, you like girls who are a bit tanned?」

「Wha-what are you saying Tanya.....but, is that true? if it's true then.....that makes me glad for a moment. Do you want to do me again?」

「BABUU!」

Since recently they're not suspecting me even if I reply to them, I energetically answered. I also became accustomed to looking at the faces of these 3, I came to be able to use my 「Lovely Round Eyes」 and ask them anything. Though there ain't a skill such as that.

Monica-san's favorability is not easy compared to the other two since she has a tolerance for charm. No, though they all aren't 「Feels her fate with you」..... but even now, it is likely to become a very serious thing in the distant future.

There are others in which we encounter in the town, in which how many have me and my mother met while she commutes to places in the town. First of all are those 2, which are Mellone-san who owns a food shop in town, and Elena-san with her tailoring shop.

Sixth person Mellone・Falkaher 17 years old

Time of breast feeding start : after 3 months

Breast feeding frequency : once every 2 days 45 times in total

Relation : Goodwill is held into you.

Acquired skill : Merchant 5

Seventh person Elena・Padool 25 years old

Time of breast feeding start : after 3 months

Breast feeding frequency : once or twice every 2 days 51 times in total

Relation : She feels her fate with you

Acquired skill : Merchant 5

Having asked the girls who had the 「Merchant」 job, they matched up to me and I received the merchant skill up to 10 points.

Even though I thought that receiving the suckling from another woman when going outside would be difficult, Mellone-san who was looking after her small shop by herself, took care of me while Remillia mama was shopping on her own. It didn't get invoked much at first but "Charm" finally work since we came here for a number of times now.

Mellone-san who is looking after the store until getting married, is one of the people on my list in me becoming a sommelier, and her position on the list is 1 place higher than Aretta. She's the first woman I've seen who is wearing glasses after I came to this different world.

「Hiroto-kun's mother, since it'll take a while for her to choose which meat to buy.....I'll be giving you some before it's too late. Here we...go!」

「chuu,chuu.....」

「hmhh, that tickles.....but you're so cute. Oh Remillia-san, to bring such a lovely child here.....」

While she straightened her glasses that inadvertently trembled and slipped off, Mellone-san had an embarrassed smile as she looked at me. Even if she was small, I still felt the premonition of her growth. She's still 17 year of age after all, so there's still room for her to grow. While I who was thinking about that, I should really kill myself as expected.

(The Merchant skill is valuable. The consumption of money decreases, and the 「Lucky Find」 would be obtained in the stores sooner or later. The most important part is the appraisal.....a judgment skill)

In order to get the passive skill 「Business Ability」 when the Merchant skill is raised to 10 points, I again asked for the help of another female merchant. Though I say that, inside the tailoring shop that mother took me with, lies again another talent that has been discovered.

「Remillia-san's body isn't strong. Instead I'll.....well you won't understand even if I tell you huh. Hahaha」

(.....Yo-you're wrong.....)

Elena-san is a wealthy merchant who is selling various clothes, is an exotic woman who had a long brunette hair.

She says that she like children, and she herself is a mother of 2 kids. However her children has already been weaned, so has her maternity fell.....is what I thought, but it was kept below the mark of 50.

「I could produce more in the past but.....it's like this maybe since it's been after a long time now」

While mother is trying on some clothes in the interior of the shop, Elena-san pulled off the neckline of her clothes in which her breasts popped out with a poron sound. Though my senses have already been paralyzed, the thrill isn't normal when thinking that other shoppers might come in.

「Hnn,ahnnn.....」

「It's alright even if you don't hurry you know. For an old lady like me to take out my breasts like this, no one would even bat an eye」

In Eternal・Magia, though it isn't weird to consider a girl that has reached the age of 25 and higher to be called 「Old Lady」, I just can't see it as being true. Since the prime of a Lady is 25 years of age is the good point of age in my previous existence, though I was nervous at first.....

「Chuu,chuu」

「.....I remember those times, when our children were still small. Those children were so cute too and they would suckle with utmost effort too.....」

Elena-san who earnestly does so, in which she seemed like a very affectionate and kind mother is what I thought. If I would say it, I confirmed that the skill doesn't rise by the flowing log, but I still ask her for more.

Elena's son is Ash by the way, and his younger sister is called Stella. In Mizerre which had a small number of children, ahead of this, there might surely be a chance to meet with those two people.

(Variously beforehand, it would be bad if I didn't understand the circumstances of my surroundings.....I'm not a clueless child)

I won't be able to act well that much in the society of children even if I use the knowledge of my previous life, though I want to make it unlike that so much. Though I'll be making enemies if I didn't fix my way of speaking, but with 「Negotiation Technique」by my side then it would be alright.

Until I grow up, I planned on training thoroughly on right behaviors so I won't get misunderstood. To quietly make 3 friends who I won't lose their trust on me, that is where I'll be starting.

Chapter 10 ②: The Clergy and the Adventurer

The women who had the 「Villager」 job, though it was possible for me to properly charm them while mother carried me at her back and walked in town, but when I come to the stage where my Physique is at 100 points and I received their breast milking, the skill didn't go up only by allowing me to see the chance and sucking easily. Though I drank little by little and though I earned 2 points of the Physique skill, but it ended at 12 points.

Is there no new skill that I can take anymore.....is what I thought as my target. For 4 months after my birth, I had a new encounter. It is the Sister in the church near our house Serra-san.

Eighth person Serra•Chiffon (?)Yrs old

Time of breast feeding start : after 4 months

Breast feeding frequency: Once a week 8 times in total

Relation: She is interested in you

Acquired skill: Clergy 3 Singing 1

Since Sister Serra-san passes without fail in front of my house when she's commuting from her home to the church, and though my 「Charm」 failed when it was invoked several times, it finally succeeded at the 4th month for the first time.

The case of the person that I've successfully charmed will visit our house is large. Since Remillia mama and Serra-san are acquaintances, there was no problem with it. Even if the person I don't know got charmed and visited us, though it was possible for me to issue a command for them to 「Go home」.

「Remillia-sama, I truly apologize. To visit so suddenly like this」

「No, it's alright. Usually for me, I am indebted to you.....for me to not be able to eat the bread which has received the blessing of the Goddess for even once a week, I wouldn't be able to calm down」

To put on that 「Clergy's Hood」 for a long time, maybe she has cut off her hair.....is what I've thought. Then I asked of her (Ordered her), at the interval of Remillia mama standing up from the chair and went somewhere as usual, but though she took off her hood.....

The thing that spread out with a Fusa! sound effect, was a white like silver hair of hers. Serra-san combed down her hair and looked at my direction.....For such a beautiful person, to be working at the nearby church.

「.....Hiroto-san, please forgive me for admonishing the doctrine unto a baby like you .The Goddess is at any time watching over us.」

(Goddess.....In the church, they worshiped a Goddess huh. The one who reincarnated me, is that Goddess the one who they are worshiping.....?)

Serra-san taught me that the Goddess made this world and all of the living beings have been made by her and she was the existence that defended us from the monsters. Though a baby wouldn't be able to understand that Common-sensibly ,Serra-san kept on seriously talking earnestly.....Yep. She has the impression of a devout believer. For better or worse.

What skill could I take from a clergy, is what I was suddenly anxious about.

Thus, when I looked at her status.....

(.....Eh??)

It's not possible for her to sing

Remaining skill point: 16

(.....Me-Mermaid? Though she's looks like a human in any angle.....
However, Singing 100..... !)

The Mermaids were a race that wasn't still available in the game. It seems like she has a complex past, and that's why even if her singing level is 100, there are no skills on the singing system.....maybe it's because of that passive skill 「It's not possible for her to sing」.

(Mo-Moreover.....even though she looks like a senior high school like person ,but her real age is seven years old.....)

According to her race, though I think that they would approach an adult figure earlier, this is too surprising that I hardened. Seven years old.....SEVEN YEARS OLD.....!?

「The Goddess gave unto the humble me, her benevolence since she is a graceful being.....Hiroto-san also by all means, should go to church when you grow up. Let us have a long conversation about the Goddess at that time」

Since she's a mermaid in the form of a human, her faith is crazily.....no, she's a person who piously believed in the Goddess while being a SEVEN YEAR OLD.

Will the moment come for me to allude this person's mystery.....? Possibly, maybe she will turn back to her mermaid form when her feet touches water.

「Thus.....That's all for today. From me to you ,I have already given unto you a trifling thing.....」

「.....Ma-Manma!」

Since I won't waste this chance, I appealed unto her desperately. Then Serrasan's face reddened and she smiled with a kusu sound effect.

H-however.....this, this passion like feeling. This person, is not an ordinary person in all meanings.....!

「Oh Goddess.....To this starving infant, I shalt donate unto him this humble body of mine, please forgive me.....」

◆Choices Dialog◆

▪《Serra》 is trying to use the active skill [Breastfeed] on you. Will you permit her to use it on you? YES／NO

Serra-san removed the string that was keeping her clothes fixed and she started the preparation for breast feeding. T-to donate she said.....did it really make her like that. There is no helping it when she becomes like that since it's because of the 「Charmed」 state.....

Serra-san's back which is being bathe in the sunlight that came from the window looked very exactly as a Holy Woman. Different than Fillianess-san, the shape of a complete beauty is here.

「Now, let us start. Before the Goddess, like how she has given her blessings to the children she has created, from me unto you.....」

(.....I shall say my conclusion. Serra-san is SCARY.....She's somehow VERY SCARY..... !)

◆Log◆

▪ You are now receiving 《Serra》's [Breastfeed] skill. Your HP has been recovered.

▪ You have acquired the clergy skill !

▪《Serra》muttered.「AHH.....my Goddess. Please forgive this sinful me」

Serra-san looked at me after I finished sucking her breasts, and a satisfied like smile floated on her face.

「.....For a clergy, though a thing like this won't be forgiven. For Hiroto-san, by all means together with me, to the road of the goddess.....」

▪《Remillia》opened the door.

「I'm really sorry, to forget the laundry that has remained.....Oh my, were you playing with Hiroto?」

Serra-san didn't panic or made any noise when the door suddenly opened and instantly put on her clothes.

「Yes.....though he doesn't look at my direction so easily but similarly to Remillia-sama, he has a quite unique elegance」

「From me, doesn't he look like Ricardo much more.....but, when either of the features gets succeeded by him then I'd be glad」

When Serra-san tries to tie the string of her clothes so as for Remillia-san to not notice it, she put on her hood and grinned with a smile.

.....Are there other people who have other sides? Well, since faith is profound, then she seems to be not a bad person.....Even if I went to church when I grow up, I still wanted to get more skills.

With that conclusion, whenever Serra-san passes by on her way to the church, I would ask her to breast feed me.

「Nhh.....If you are fine with my donation then, as many as you want to.....I shall give all unto you.....」

I would receive her breast feeding every time after her long sermons and it has gradually became a habit of mine.....will I get into this faith like this. Nope, though I didn't have any intention in getting into it.....and I could take any more of the Clergy skill after 10 points.

Ninth Person Anna Marie • Cruel 16 years old

Time of breast feeding start : after 5 months

Breast feeding frequency: Twice

Relation: Normal

Acquired skill: Adventurer 1

Acquired Item: Magic Sealing Pendant

Another one, —though there was a chance for a valuable suckling for once, it was the adventurer Anna Marie-san. Though she came here to Mizerre for the quest she accepted, she turned adrift when she forgot to book an inn room, so she is lent a lodging in our house for the night.

「I-I'm sorry but, I, because it is the first time I've come to Mizerre.....」

Anna Marie-san had trimmed one side of her hair to about shoulder-length, and they are woven into thin braids. While a Headband is rolled over it, her equipment arrange is the entire leather group and she's shouldering a large backpack. Her appearance is that exactly of an adventurer. The weapon she's equipped with is a spear and it's obvious that it was considerably embezzled.

「It's alright, we're all equal when being troubled. You're hungry aren't you? Please wait for a bit」

「Umm, is there something that I can also be of help with!?!」

「Umm well.....To play with my son Hiroto, is what I want to say. Is it alright with you?」

「Wha-what do you mean if it's alright with me!? I-I don't have any weird hobbies!」

「It's good if that's so.....Hiroto, it's not good to do with her too okay」

Remillia mama stabbed me with a nail there. But for me, I won't overlook such a wonderful job like an 「Adventurer」.

(.....However, she's a type that I haven't encountered yet huh. A 16 year old adventurer huh.....What could be her circumstances)

While thinking so, Anna Marie-san came to near my side and timidly looked at me. With those large pupils, my face got reflected on it.....Pl-please stop, if I am seen too much then I'll.....

「A baby.....I also at sometime, can I also be able to make a child too.....」

She is also friendly to me even if I averted from her look. I-if I don't manage to improve my impression to her.....

「A,ana.....ai」 (TLN: ANnA mArle)

「Eeh.....Yo-you can already talk? You're amazing, to understand my name ! 」

Anna Marie-san is deeply moved. For a baby to talk, some can already be pleased with just that.

◆Log◆

▪「Charm」 has been invoked ! 《Anna Marie》 has successfully prevented it with the effect of the Demon Sealing Pendant.

▪《Anna Marie》 became vigilant.

「.....Wha-what was that.....!？」

(Woah.....su-surely.....did she notice my passive skill and became vigilant.....!?)

Anna Marie-san possessed an equipment that prevents charmsince it's not possible for one to see someone's equipment if they aren't in a party, I couldn't read this kind of happening.....!

「Haah.....that surprised me. This stone occasionally, it sounds of with a Bachi on its own. I'm really sorry, to surprise you like that.」

Anna Marie-san pulled out a pendant from the chest part of her clothes. Was the demon stone applied in there.....I see. Anna Marie-san equipped this while not knowing of its effect that it prevents charm.

Since she's showing it off, information can be understood from that easy item. Let me look at it without reserve.

◆Item◆

Name : Magic Sealing Pendant

Type : Pendant

Rarity : Super Unique

Defense power : 3

- Cannot be appraised.
- 「Emerald (エメラルド)」 is set inside it.
- 「Charm」 can be defended a bit.

(I understand it's effect of preventing charm, but it's still cannot be appraised.....?)

There are three stages with the appraisal, 「Appraisal」「Detailed Appraisal」「Eyes of Truth」 are the 3 skills that correspond to it. Perhaps to know the information of this pendant, the detailed appraisal or the eyes of truth would be necessary for it.

「This pendant, you seem to have taken a liking to it. Should I give it to you? I was planning on giving this as a reward for me staying here today」

「.....Aa,uu」

「Ahaha, I see, you still can't understand difficult things huh. This thing is, though you might think that it's an incredible thing, I still haven't understood its merit. However, something good might happen if I bring it with me」

◆Choices Dialog◆

▪《Anna Marie》is handing over the 「Magic sealing pendant」 to you. Will you allow her? YES／NO

(To suddenly obtain a super unique item.....This person, Might she be a great person.....?)

Anna Marie is floating a friendly smile when looking at her. Though she got surprised when the charm was invoked.....No, didn't she not understand that it was my doing.

「I look for things like these, since I'm treasure hunting. Since I've found many things, I'll give this one to you」

Well if you insist.....even if I can't put it into use as a baby, someday, the moment might come where I can use this on something.

◆Dialog◆

▪You have obtained 「Magic Sealing Pendant」 in your hands. It fell off to your feet since you can't equip it.

The pendant dropped inside the cradle. Probably, Anna Marie-san will be explaining that she has given it to me. If Mama would give an OK then it would be alright though.....Is what I wanted to say.

If she took off the pendant that was defending her against the charm.....i-in short.....!

「Ah, my stomach has become empty.....there's a wonderful smell in here. You mother is surely good at cooking」

Though mama's cuisine skill was at 10 when I was born, her skill has risen to the place where 20 has been exceeded. Since her action skill 「Simple dish」 ranked up to 「Dish」, the food that she could make increased rapidly. Ricardo papa is always happy when eating every day.

Maybe today would be Vegetable & meat stew. I looked like the 「Potofu」 that I know. The bread that has been bought from the town has been put out again after it was heated up for the second time. Mommy spared no effort on putting fire to the bread pan —- that, is also because Papa Ricardo fetched a plenty amount of firewood though.

However, even though you're saying your stomach is empty, I don't think that it's delicious even if I smelled the fragrance of the potofu. Though I've become accustomed to the fruit juice that they have allowed me to drink occasionally, I'm still unable to eat the usual meals yet.

「Manma, Manma」

「Is your stomach empty too? Since you're still a baby, you're still getting milk from your mother huh. Or else, would you like to have a go in sucking my finger」

「Babu!」

「Eh? Ahaha, Sorry sorry. It's not delicious even if you would lick my fingers」

Well certainly, this might be the usual reaction to that. Once the charm hangs unto you, saying that the next phase is suckling is a peculiar case

◆Log◆

▪「Charm」has been invoked ! 《Anna Marie》failed to resist and has entered in the state of Charmed.

(and while I was talking about it, it really came.....!)

「Hm.....H-huh? That's strange.....I, did I do something.....」

Since 15 minutes have already passed after the judgment a while ago, it would be coming now momentarily is what I've thought. At the time that Anna Marie removed her pendant, though I did have some expectations with my real intentions.

「.....To say Manma, are you calling out to me? When a baby says so then, do you mean a female person.....is this the thing why I'm feeling like this.....」

When she reacted to the baby's crying voice, would the breast milk that I've been sucking a while ago come out.....because, Mother seemed to have some too. However since I wasn't crying, but when it's just a baby charming someone, there is a providence of coming to want to give the baby some milk.

(I'm truly sorry.....Anna Marie-san. If I don't get the 「Adventurer」skill then, even if I would be able to walk, I won't be able to receive quests in the guild.....!)

Though I wasn't planning on taking on quests when I learn how to walk, but since my physique and magic attainments are considerably high now then, even if I'm still a baby, I would be stronger than an adult that has not been training their body. Of course, the damage received changes according to the size of one's body, though I as a baby would be impossible to be able to strengthen more than papa, I would be able to defeat a low level monster with just a punch. I'll already make the preparations for receiving an order of a quest.

Since I've already taken 12 for the physique skill, then 36 would be added to my damage correction.....to say that how much it is concretely, a goblin's HP is 30 then it would be possible for me to just defeat him with one attack. Since I won't be fighting a goblin while I'm still a baby, though I'm not able to try it. If it's the monsters in the forest of the vicinity of Mizerre, I would be able to knock them all out with a hard battle excluding the orcs.

Anyways, it would be better for me to go to the guild earlier. Since the experience obtained in quests are a lot, if it's the same with the game, then it would be more efficient to raise the level by accepting quests. Small fry monster subjugation and delivering material goods would have enough income for me.

While I was making an excuse with this and that, Anna Marie-san has already taken off her leather armor and she tried to tuck up her underwear like the shape of a tank top. When the force that has been excellently hidden well inside jumped out, what was inside of the armor was an unexpected growth that couldn't be understood while it inside the armor.

「To look at me so much like that.....even though you've been averting you gaze at me a while ago so much. Hiroto-kun, do you like breasts that much?」

(.....Rather than saying that I like it after all of the things I've done, IT'S ALREADY MY LIFE WORK)

◆Log◆

- You have a feeling that you are now able to acquire the「Adventurer」 skill.
- 《Anna Marie》 smiled.

「Nhh.....it was possible for me to truly do it, even I.....Hiroto-kun, is it delicious?」

Anna Marie gently asked that to me. The following action that I must do without fail——has already flowed into me.

- You are now receiving 《Anna marie》's「Breastfeed」 skill. Your Hp has been replenished.
- You have obtained the skill 【Adventurer】!

「I-I see.....so it was still insufficient. Well this is how you're growing up」

(I utterly and sincerely apologize unto you.....however, I shall definitely accomplish this.....!)

Even with an adventurer skill is 1, I would still be treated as a 「Novice adventurer」 and be able to accept requests. When thinking about the efficiency of level raising, it would be more better to take more.....it's truly a great thing that Anna Marie-san came here.

「.....But, you shouldn't be too much in a hurry. You should slowly grow up..... Okay, that's the end」

◆Log◆

- 《Anna Marie》 has recovered from the charmed state.

(Woah, that was fast.....was there such a fast recovering like this)

To the people who have resistance, they are likely to naturally recover when the charm hangs unto them. But this rapidness.....perhaps Anna Marie-san's charm resistance is much stronger than Monica-san.

And thus, 「Charisma」 effect didn't get invoked at her. Though it is correct that I was able to get the adventurer skill, I couldn't see what kind of status she had.....though I'm considerably anxious about it, there was no helping with it.

Anna Marie-san who is fixing her clothes, poked my nose and laughed.

「It's bad to want to do more okay? In the future. Only for today, I'll leave it as a secret」

(.....As I've thought, this person has perceived my ability.....nevertheless, the charm has still hung on her)

Though I've thought that she was a regular adventurer, this person similarly with Serra-san, has a big secret with them.....is what I've felt on them. When I grow up a little more, if I acquire a bit of experience as an adventurer, will I be able to understand her.

「Sorry to keep you waiting, the preparation are over. Anna Marie-san, would it be possible or you to set up the table?」

「Okay, I'll do anything that is necessary!」

「Oh my, Hiroto.....that, what is the thing you're holding to? A pendant?」

「This, I gave it to Hiroto in exchange for letting me stay here. Please accept it by all means」

「Oh no.....is it alright? It seems to be expensive」

「It's alright, I, for one am truly happy to stay in here」

While looking at Remillia mama and Anna Marie-san's exchange, my desire to want to be able to talk became stronger. To want to talk a lot with people, my past self would even think of this.....However.

There are a lot of things that I can't understand if I won't speak of it. Serra-san, Anna Marie-san.....who in the world are they, but it's inelegant to possess any interest on them. To a mysterious thing, one would become curious of it.

(Because I have reincarnated, I wanted to know a lot about this world a bit.....these girls for sure will know the world that I've been surprised about)

The super unique item that rarely drops in the game, a female adventurer just gave it without regret.

I for a long time afterwards, have known her true colors.

Chapter 10 ③: Day's Beginning

Since the time I've started to hang on to stuff and stand, did six months already pass? The frequency of my fruit juice drinking has increased and the shifting to weaning must have finally come. In sliding it all, there was a chance to acquire an important skill.

Tenth person Pamela•Brannel 20 years old

Time of breast feeding start : after 5 months

Breast feeding frequency: 84 times in total

Relation: Goodwill is held unto you.

Acquired Skill: Thief 10

Acquired Item: Thief's scarf

During the daytime, a house in the vicinity caught a small fire and Remillia mama went out to help put out the fire. Since I can't indeed help out, I just exercised inside the crib, but though I tried to forge my body a bit.....

With the sound of Parin, I heard a sound. Inside our house, though how many were we using some valuable glass in this world on our window, but there seems to be one that has been broken——which means that.

(An intruder.....A person who steals while there is a fire huh)

I concealed my breath for the time being. It would have been more easy if I had the 「Spy」 skill right now.....Since I'm able to come out of my crib by myself, if only I had the spy skill then I could scout out there while crawling .For mama to not realize my growth is too fast, I moderately adjusted and the I showed them the processes of my growth.

However, it would be bad if the intruder went to the room with valuables. If only that person would come over here.....is what I was thinking when.

「Aristocrats are so simple huh. Since they don't have any crisis awareness at all.」

The person who says that in a cold tone, is a woman with an obviously bad atmosphere around her. She had some light armor in which tells everyone that she's a thief and some shoes that reduces the sound of footsteps, while equipping a dagger with her.

(Those are a set that only thieves can equip.....is what can be said about it. There is no need to look at her status, since she obviously has the thief skill.....!)

My eyes began to sparkle. When she approached for a moment, she has entered my effective range.....I ask of thee, a little more.....!

「Nh.....Well now, it's a baby .To leave a baby that has just been born and to help putting out the fire of someone else's house shouldn't be a good case」

The female thief who had a fluffy blue curly hair walked closer to me as she made a sarcastic remark. If.....if she enters for about a single step then, then she would be in my territory.....!

(TRAP CARD • OPEN! ME!) (TLN: PLAYS YU-GI-OH VICTORY THEME!)

◆Dialog◆

▪《Pamela》is waiting for your command. Will you command her? YES／N
O

(For the time being, after I hear what evil deed she would be working on our house, then shall I decide on what to do with her)

Inside my head, 「Please tell me what are you going to do in here」is what I prayed for. Since I didn't have any consoles, and though it's difficult to transmit it unto her.....but since I was able to transmit my will like this to grandpa Valdes, then this might work.

「I came to this house to steal all the valuable things inside. I planned burning the house and escaping afterwards. When doing so, there won't be any evidence or the likes that will be left」

(Woah, it's just a normal evil person!)

I reflexively drew back. It would be better to just steal rather than to ignite the house too. Am I not in a pinch as usual.

To deprive Remillia mama and Ricardo papa of their memento, their love nest.....rather, to try to burn our important house. Even if this is still an attempt, should I still forgive her.

「However, since there's a lovely looking baby like you here, then I'll kidnap you for the time being.」

(YOU'RE GUILTYYYYYYYYYYY!)

•You have ordered 《Pamela》 to 「Breastfeed」 you.

「Babu!」

「Hm.....Ah, Aah, it's alright it's alright.....I understand, you want milk right? It can't be helped since you're a baby huh.....」

Though my words wouldn't ever get relied on to someone else without the Negotiation Technique, an instruction while in the state of charmed is absolute. To such an evil thief, it is necessary to squeeze her variously. Nope, I didn't mean that in a perverted way.

「What am I doing inside the house I'm stealing in.....For me to do such a thing as this」

「Aren't you lovely while you're drinking like that.....boy. To say that men, were like this when they were a baby.....?」

When the Thief Skill was acquired, the probability of the enemy finding you would decrease which would be the 「Spy」 skill that would be obtained with it. Since there are various combos that are connected to the Spy Skill, then it would become an indispensable strong skill in the future.

However, it wouldn't be good to release her from 「Charm」 yet. Since it is likely to become a fight if my parents came back and saw this, then this situation right now cannot continue.

「.....aea」

「AEA!」

「Moreover, why are you saying my name.....o,don't tell me.....You're, A DEMON.....!?!」

(That's an awful way of saying it.....However, though I was just telling you to be obedient)

Since I couldn't say any other things aside from vowels, though I couldn't say Pamela correctly, it seemed to have been transmitted to her well.

However until mother returns, how many times can I get from her.

.....Ah. I just had an evil idea.

「.....manma」

「Wha-what are you looking at.....You know that I-it's the first time that I breastfed someone. A while ago was just on a whim, but if you're thinking of getting it for the second time.....」

▪《Pamela》fainted.

(Heh.....Even if I'm still a baby, I could still defeat an enemy by draining off your mana like this)

In the end, even though Pamela wore such a doubtful clothes, with the gentle nature Remillia mama 「she fell from hunger」 would be misunderstood with her, then she would make food for her and send her away.

The scarf that she took off when she breastfed me is inside my crib.....this scarf that assist with the Thief Skill, is my loot. In a sense, this was my first serious battle. Though it's a tricky tactic of knocking her down by cutting off her mana.

Since Pamela-san got scared of me at the end, I indeed reflected for a moment. Since it's bad to do it too much.

And when I received another six months from when I was born, Fillianess-san and everyone came to town again.

After Fillianess confirms the status of the demon blade, she would stay at the town for a week, and clean up the monsters surrounding the town independently.

「We just returned now～! KUHA, I'm so tired!」

「Though we thought that it would just be goblins, but there were orcs and kobolds too huh.....Though I've been thinking that the monsters in this area are gradually getting stronger.....」

Marle-san who just returned is soaking in sweat, while Fillianess-san had a refreshing look. There's a large scale outbreak of monsters at the eastern part of the kingdom so they got dispatched there, and while they defeated a reasonable number of monsters and acquired some experience, they got stronger by a loop.

When utilizing the Negotiation Technique, though it is possible to increase the fortune and clear the quest without fighting, but since I liked combat in Eternal Magia, then the desire of Fighting after I got reincarnated here got stronger. When looking upon these women who just finished fighting, I'd get excited by all means.

「That's enough for today, everyone. To say that the people from the Knight's mass has rooted out the monsters, we'd be also famous in this town」

「No, it is not to that extent. To protect the people from monsters, since that is the obligation of a knight」

Remillia mama greeted those three and passed the cloth for wiping off their sweat.

She's really beautiful as usual.....Fillianess-san. Since her circlet is applied on her, and since we haven't met for a while, I'm sure that she's already been released from the charmed state though——is what I was thinking.

◆Log◆

- 《Fillianess》' charmed state continues.
- 《Margit》's charmed state continues.
- 《Aletta》's charmed state continues.

(.....This is, it's not possible to solve it any longer if I don't release it?)

Since I haven't released the charm on those three people who have gathered, then they'll come to me first of all and wait for my command and would try to breastfeed me. Since mama is in here right now, I have rejected their offer while being heartbroken about it.

「Yesterday, since my husband prepared some meat from the Star Rabbit that he and his friend hunted at the forest, then I can make a feast for today」

「Star Rabbit.....Though the fur in the part of its head, looks like a stalk with the shape of a star, is it that legendary.....!? Ar-are we really allowed to eat such a thing～!?」

「I can't believe it.....of the thousands from the rabbit group's nest, I have heard that 1 or none existed in it」

Marle-san and Aletta-san is deeply impressed. Even in the first stage, the exciting rare drop would go out at a super low probability which is a good thing for Eternal Magia. Even for the amateurs that just started, they still had the chance to obtain rare drops that can make them strong like the paying users.

The Star Rabbit's meat is valuable since after you eat it then your movement, attack and chanting speed would increase. Since its effect only lasts for 5 minutes, It was a tacit rule for the players with the task of attacking the boss to eat those. Of course it wasn't severe at the first stage so much.

The duration of the meal in different world is different from the game since I understood that it would last for a whole day. Papa already received the Star Rabbit meat twice and I confirmed the duration of the meal last time in the log. Since I roughly have it at night, then the efficiency of work would rise if it is eaten in the morning——though, since mama puts it out with great effort, then

I won't worry for the buff effect in this case.

「Fillianess-san, is something wrong? You've been looking absent minded for a while now.....」

「Haaa.....I-it's nothing. Even if I recall the taste of the Star Rabbit that I ate from my childhood days, I won't get any weak feelings that will lose to the me as of now」

「Fufufu.....Fillianess too, is also weak against delicious food」

(Please remember to eat and grow up more, Fillianess-san)

「Muuu.....Hiroto looks like he wants to eat too. If you grow up for a bit more, then I'll soften it and feed it to you」

「To soften it, is it the food that's already been chewed in the mouth? No, are you going to feed it to him mouth to mouth～」

Mouth to mouth feeding huh.....weaning food-like. No, I'm not saying that I'll be able to do that or anything.

(Skills won't rise with mouth to mouth feeding huh.....wait, that's not it. That's kissing already, isn't it)

Fillianess-san's lips that seems to be moist and soft.....N-no, Even if I continued their charmed state, I won't command them to do that. I won't release them though, with the charm that is.

「.....I've promised him though, to Hiroto. In case of the same mouth to mouth feeding, though I think a candy might be better」

「Fillianess-sama, the meaning of you buying a piece of candy in town..... Surely, are you not thinking of doing such a thing?」

To Aletta's question, Fillianess could only return an answer by her cheeks blushing red and making a smile. Before that, I've experienced receiving her breastfeeding for all night long too.....wait, what would I do if she becomes defiant.

To say candy, it's considerably expensive in this world. A piece of bread is only 2 copper coins, and the medicinal herb is 10 copper coins, while the candy is 15 copper coins. Sugar is a valuable thing in this world.

When it's for food seasoning, it's only natural that there are no soy sauce and miso. Since I from my past life loved to eat Japanese food, I thought that if the ingredients got found then I wanted to make it. Though I think that I'll fail several times.

「Haa~, Viva Viva.....Though what is Viva Viva, Hiroto-chan?」

「Please don't say it when you don't even understand it.....The following would be me accompanying Hiroto-chan」

「Alright~. Hiroto-chan, Are my nipples tasty?」

「Chuu,chuu.....nhh,nkuh.....」

When stepping inside the bath, while being carried by Marle-san's chest, I am now sucking the other breast. Though my physique skill won't rise anymore, but since I won't become dizzy with it, then it's very important for me to receive her breast milk while taking a bath.

「Ahh.....it's really good that I came. I can now give to Hiroto like this～」

「Me too. Therefore, finish up faster so I can take my turn.....」

「You don't need to be in such a hurry. Aletta, have you not received the arrow of the kobold a little while ago?」

「N-no, it's just a scratch. Fillianess was there too.....Ah.....」

To the small wound on Aletta-san's arm, Fillianess-san used her lips on it. I was thinking that I should be worried, but since sometimes the blow-darts that are equipped on the kobolds have arrows that are painted with weak poison, then it would be bad to not be careful.

「Rather than doing this kind of thing, Aletta is more reliable since she could treat herself」

「No, thank you. I'm sorry for making you worry」

「Sorry Aletta-chan, though I thought that I've stroked the arrow, but I couldn't make it on time.....」

「It's alright, since I'm also already accustomed in fighting. It's also good that I was able to test a new wand too」

It's a combat with a wand adjacent to her huh. Though Medics can use it to some extent, but leaving it to the vanguard is primarily is the best.

I.....in the future, I want to be able to do either. Since I want to pair up a party with Ricardo papa, then while gradually raising my axe mastery, I'll be able to equip it sooner or later. First of all will we the axe, then after that then I also wanted to use a sword.

I want to receive sword training from Fillianess.....With the lightning and paralysis magic sword, I want to also use those. For that reason, since I can't use spirit arts yet, then it would be bad for me to not go to the magician guild sooner or later.

「Okay, time to change with Aletta-chan. Yoishotto!」 (TLN: It's the sound those Japanese beings say when they're lifting up things)

「Thank you.....Hiroto-chan, though it's smaller compared to Marle-san, is it alright?」

「Didn't it go out more with Aletta-chan than mine? It doesn't matter if it's big or small huh～.....therefore it's not negligence but」

When glancing at Marle-san's way, she really has the proportions as usual that no one would think a 14 years old would have much like Fillianess-san. Since her birthday is near, then she'll be turning into a 15 year old soon.

「Wha-what are you looking at.....Though my height is small, are you saying that it's a miracle that milk comes out of my breasts?」

「Eh.....Raijin-sama too, were you breastfeeding Hiroto-chan too～? When did you start?」

「Wro-wron.....You're absolutely wrong! I'm not hiding the fact the fact that I'm breast feeding Hiroto!」

(.....Th-that was close. I've decided already that I won't change my way of suckling for different women)

That was the last rule of the me that has already strayed from the path of the old times. That is to receive the sucking with a calm a mind.

However I was the only one who set that rule, and for the side of the one breast feeding, I couldn't tell them to calm down at all.

- 《Fillianess》 is in ecstasy.

「.....Nhh.....NNHh.....I'm really sorry, are you suffocating.....?」

Fillianess-san asked without fail to let her sleep with me——but though it was alright. When her eyes starts to change when she looks at me while sleeping together, the breastfeeding would start then.

After confirming that Marle-san and Aletta-san are fast asleep, she would hide under the blanket and breastfeed me. Wha-what might it be.....the usual times I've suckled on to her, how many times has it been.....

「.....It's your fault you know.....Hiroto. It's because you made me feel this way.....」

「.....Ba,Babu?」

「I don't understand your babus.....stupid. When you grow up a bit more, then please call me by my name.....」

(.....Oops, I did it too much.....She became the same with Sarasa-san's favorability.....!)

Though she started to whisper those sweet words of love to a baby like me,「I dedicate my mind and body to you」 was the level of favorability she had now. Of course that's only when the two of us are alone, since it's not always like that.

「.....I'm still fine in my case.....If you want more, then do so without reserve.....」

◆Dialog◆

▪《Fillianess》 is trying to use the active skill [Breastfeed] on you. Will you permit her to use it on you? YES／NO

(Tha-that's not good.....this is indeed too much.....If I charm her here then it would become a serious thing afterwards.....)

「.....Do you not want to suck my breasts.....?」

(.....I CAN'T REFUSE THATTTTTTTTTTTTT!)

▪「Holy」 Swordplay skill has risen!

▪《Fillianess》 is in the state of 「Fascinated」. The success rate of seduction has risen.

(Thi-this abnormal status.....though it's obviously filled with malice.....)

It's like it was a combo that was planned by the Goddess herself. For me to be able to easily use seduction on a person who is on a charmed state, I don't even understand anything anymore.....

「Fuu.....When doing this like so, I become filled with wonderful feelings. It's because you've taught me this kind of feeling.....I for the Goddess, for the kingdom.....and now for you, will be dedicating my sword. Not just only my sword.....but all of me.....」

It's not the thing of which she would spoil me but, this.....might already be what I can say as being loved by her.

But by doing so, I become uneasy. If I become able to speak, would we still be intimate like this right now.

(.....No. If I become scared at times like this, then nothing would start)

「The next time that I'll possibly come back here will be several months later.....while watching the demon sword, you might grow little by little. And then, when you become a great man at that time.....at that time, I'll be.....」

The meaning of what Fillianess-san is saying, even I that had no girl to go out with still understood it.

When I grow up, Fillianess-san also too.....so our standpoints would change, and she is scared of getting separated with me.

Indefinitely, we may not stay like this for long. But even so for now, until the morning dawns.

「.....you're a good child. I'll do this to you for now, and spoil you for a while.....So please tell me, that you need me.....」

——Half a year after my birth. The skills that I’ve obtained before I got weaned, after that I have worked hard in raising the ones that I could raise as much as possible. After coming to be able to walk, before I become 1 year old approaches, I increased the speed of doing those things.

And thus, I received my 1 year old birthday. Sarasa-san, with Leona that she took came and knocked on our door.

「Hiroto-chan, Happy birthday to you. In the future too, please get along with us」

「Thank you, Sarasa-san. Hey Hiroto, stop being so nervous and say your thanks neatly」

「.....Th-thank you」

「Fufufu.....Recently, you've become very shy. Even though you were attached to me a long time ago.....Well it's alright, for me to spoil you a bit more」

While Sarasa-san holds Leona, she embraces me. S-so soft.....and she smells so good furthermore. If they knew that a 1 year old was thinking those kinds of things, then what should I do.

「.....Hi,hio.....Hiocha.....」 (TLN: HIrOto-CHAN)

「Oh my, Leona-chan came to be able to speak that much huh. She seems to be able to say the name of this child of ours」

「Yes. Oh you, rather than us, she only tries to call Hiroto-chan」

While I was being like that, since I didn't meet Leona for a while, I wonder why is it, that when I match up my face and look at her then I'd be filled with this complicated feelings.

「Hio,Hiocha.....」

「Leona really likes Hiroto-chan huh. Even while still being a baby, do you already understand that he's a good kid」

(.....She looks like her.....as I thought.....)

When compared to the time she was born, Leona becomes a bit more girl like. When looking at her face, I by all means, couldn't get the fact out that she looked like someone from my memories.

(.....To her.....She looks like Hina. This is just a coincidence.....but.....)

「Hiroto, when Leona becomes able to walk, then please play with her okay」

「Oka-okay.....bu-but,」 「kyaaa,kyaaa♪」

「I'm gonna enjoy getting to play with Hiroto-chan, is what she looks like she's saying.....while looking this much happy」

In Sarasa-san's arms, Leona innocently reaches out for me. Her appearance is very cute, and even though I wasn't sure if I could reach her too, I tried to reach her.

——and, at that moment.

◆Log◆

▪《Leona》's 「charm」 has been invoked! You have prevented the charm with the effect of the magic sealing pendant.

(WHA.....!?)

I couldn't believe what the log flowed in my head, and I trembled instinctively.

Leona who is still a baby, didn't have any skills like anything.

With her as the child of Sarasa-san, who is a half elf and the daughter of the human Heinz, which means that she's a quarter elf.....

Without looking at her status, I was convinced that it was so

This year, while she appeared like there weren't any changes to her, I didn't doubt it.

「Okay now.....Before Ricardo comes home, It would be bad for me to not finish cooking」

「I'll also help you. Hiroto-chan, Is it alright if I leave watching Leona to you?」

「.....ye-yes.....」

◆Log◆

▪《Leona》 temporarily participated in your party.

In case of Sarasa-san, It's possible for me to answer barely. With the other party that I'm accustomed to, I'm able to answer honestly to some extent.

「Auuu♪」

When the crib was carefully rocked where Leona was put in, she happily smiled. I took out the pendant that I received from Anna Marie-san and while grasping it, I prayed to see the status of Leona.

(.....This.....For this to happen.....)

A person's status, Even if I say that the purpose to see it is to gain information, I thought that it was necessary to look at it.

And thus, that was the first time I regretted it from the time I was born up to now. Only for a brief flash, I thought that it would have been better if I didn't see it——but.

「.....Hiocha.....Hiochaa」

「.....What are you saying, I can't understand it.....」

Leona tries to mimic Sarasa-san and calls my name.

The hands that she extended to me.....while being afflicted with the contents of my mind, I grasped it firmly.

「Hiro-chan.....」

「.....,Why are you saying my name, I just said it a while ago.....!」

Even with Sarasa-san, or Heinz-san either. The name that Leona says for her first time, is my name.

Leona looked like the Childhood friend from my past life. The color of her hair too, even if the colors of her eyes were different.

——Hiro-chan, Today, these things happened at school.

Even with me from my previous life, she calls me with the same way that she would also call me. I couldn't stop recalling it.

(SHE ONLY LOOKS LIKE HER.....LEONA IS, LEONA)

I thought that I was the only peculiar person in this world.

To such a place, for me to shoulder the fate of a girl who was born at the same time as me.

For a kid to shoulder the job of Destruction's Child, the reincarnation of the Demon King's body in a word, it was not inside the game I played.....

However, I have surely understood it.

The Eternal Magia that I played, is only the imperfect reproduction of this world.

Why did the Goddess give me bonus points and why did she reincarnate me to this world.

Why is my father the one who is guarding the demon sword.

Why is it that the young me, has met the Demon King's reincarnation Leona.

(.....You said that I should struggle on to reach you right...YOU GODDESS.....!)

I swore while I grasped on to Leona's hands.

I'll use all the power and means that I have to dispel all the mystery in this world.....and.

Even if I didn't understand whether if they were really related by blood or not, Sarasa-san's 「Daughter」Leona,I SHALL PROTECT HER WITH THESE HANDS OF MINE.
